PART IV
CONDITIONS FOR CARRYING ON BUSINESS OF INSURANCE

Title I: Financial Requirements

Own Funds of authorised insurance and reinsurance undertakings.	14. (1) The own funds of an authorised insurance and reinsurance undertaking shall comprise the sum of basic own funds and ancillary own funds. (2) The amounts of ancillary own fund items to be taken into account when determining own funds shall be subject to the prior written approval of the competent authority.
---	---

	(3) The competent authority shall issue Insurance Rules to determine the components making up the basic own funds and ancillary own funds, determine what constitutes surplus funds, provide for the classification of own funds into tiers and the eligibility of the own funds, and any other matter relating thereto.
--	---

Solvency Capital Requirement.	15. (1) An authorised insurance and reinsurance undertaking shall hold eligible own funds covering the Solvency Capital Requirement. (2) The Solvency Capital Requirement shall be calculated either in accordance with the standard formula as set out in Insurance Rules or using a full or partial internal model as approved by the competent authority. The process for the approval of the use of an internal model shall be set out in Insurance Rules. (3) Where it is inappropriate for an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking to calculate the Solvency Capital Requirement in accordance with the standard formula, as set out in the Insurance Rules since the risk profile of the undertaking concerned deviates significantly from the assumptions underlying the standard formula calculation, the competent authority may, by means of a decision stating the reasons, require the undertaking concerned to use an internal model to calculate the Solvency Capital Requirement, or the relevant risk modules thereof.
--------------------------------------	--

Non-Compliance with the Solvency Capital Requirement.	16. (1) An authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking which fails to comply with article 15 shall immediately inform the competent authority as soon as it observes that the Solvency Capital Requirement is no longer complied with, or where there is a risk of non-compliance in the following three months. (2) Within two months from the observation of non-compliance with the Solvency Capital Requirement, the authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking shall submit a realistic recovery plan in accordance with Insurance Rules issued under article 18A for approval by the competent authority. (3) The competent authority shall require the undertaking concerned to take the necessary measures to achieve, within six months from the observation of non-compliance with the Solvency Capital Requirement, the re-establishment of the level of eligible own funds covering the Solvency Capital

	Requirement or the reduction of the risk profile of the undertaking to ensure compliance with the Solvency Capital Requirement. (4) The competent authority may, if appropriate, extend that period by three months. (5) The competent authority may issue Insurance Rules to determine the circumstances within which the period set out in subarticle (4) may be extended and the requirements to be complied with by the authorised insurance and reinsurance undertakings in such circumstances. (6) In exceptional circumstances, where the competent authority is of the opinion that the financial situation of the authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking concerned will deteriorate further, it may also restrict or prohibit the free disposal of the assets of that undertaking. (7) Where the competent authority decides to restrict or prohibit the free disposal of the assets of that undertaking, it shall inform the European regulatory authorities of the host Member States or the overseas regulatory authorities of any measures it has taken. The competent authority may request those authorities concerned to take the same measures, and shall designate the assets to be covered by such measures.
Minimum Capital Requirement.	17. (1) An authorised insurance and reinsurance undertaking shall hold eligible basic own funds to cover the Minimum Capital Requirement. (2) The Minimum Capital Requirement shall be calculated in accordance with Insurance Rules for the purpose of this article, and shall be not less than the amounts (the absolute floor) as determined by the said Insurance Rules.
Non-Compliance with Minimum Capital Requirement.	18. (1) An authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking which fails to comply with article 17, shall immediately inform the competent authority where it observes that the Minimum Capital Requirement is no longer complied with or where there is a risk of non-compliance in the following three months. (2) Within one month from the observation of non-compliance with the Minimum Capital Requirement, the undertaking concerned shall submit, for approval by the competent authority, a short-term realistic finance scheme, in accordance with Insurance Rules issued under article 18A, to restore, within three months of that observation, the eligible basic

	own funds, at least to the level of the Minimum Capital Requirement or to reduce its risk profile to ensure compliance with the Minimum Capital Requirement. (3) The competent authority may also restrict or prohibit the free disposal of the assets of the undertaking concerned. (4) Where the competent authority decides to restrict or prohibit the free disposal of assets of the undertaking concerned, it shall inform the European regulatory authorities of the host Member State or the overseas regulatory authorities accordingly. The competent authority may request those authorities concerned to take the same measures. The competent authority shall designate the assets to be covered by such measures.
Recovery plan and finance scheme.	18A. The particulars to be provided in the recovery plan and the finance scheme required to be submitted pursuant to articles 16 and 18 of this Act, shall be determined by Insurance Rules.
Identification, and notification procedures	18B. An authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking shall have procedures in place, including the use of early warning indicators, to identify deteriorating financial conditions and shall immediately notify the competent authority when such deterioration occurs.
Powers of the competent authority in deteriorating financial conditions.	18C. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of articles 16 and 18 of this Act and without prejudice to any of the measures that may be taken by the competent authority pursuant to article 28, where the solvency position of the authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking continues to deteriorate, the competent authority shall have the power to take all measures necessary to safeguard the interests of policyholders, in the case of contracts of insurance, or the obligations arising out of contracts of reinsurance. (2) In considering the measures to be taken, the competent authority shall take into account the level and duration of the deterioration of the solvency position of the undertaking concerned.
Valuation of assets and liabilities.	18D. Authorised insurance and reinsurance undertakings shall value their assets and liabilities in accordance with Insurance Rules made for the purposes of the Act.

Technical Provisions.	18E. (1) Authorised insurance and reinsurance undertakings shall establish and maintain technical provisions with respect to all of their insurance and reinsurance obligations towards policyholders and beneficiaries of insurance or reinsurance contracts. (2) The value and calculation of technical provisions shall be determined in accordance with Insurance Rules made for the purposes of this article. (3) Without prejudice to anything contained in any other provisions under the Act, the competent authority may, whenever it deems it necessary, require the authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking concerned to demonstrate the appropriateness of the level of the undertaking's technical provisions, as well as, the applicability and relevance of the methods applied, and the adequacy of the underlying statistical data used. (4) To the extent that the calculation of technical provisions of an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking does not comply with the Insurance Rules made for the purposes of the article, the competent authority may require the insurance or reinsurance undertaking concerned to increase the amount of technical provisions so that they correspond to the level determined by such Insurance Rules. (5) Where an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking fails to comply with the provisions of this article, the competent authority may prohibit the free disposal of its assets after having communicated its intentions to the European regulatory authority of the host Member State or the overseas regulatory authority. The competent authority shall designate the assets to be covered by such measures. (6) Every authorised insurance undertaking shall keep a special register of the assets used to cover the technical provisions calculated and invested in accordance with Insurance Rules. The register shall be maintained in accordance with Insurance Rules.
Report on solvency and financial condition.	18F. (1) Without prejudice to the information which is to be submitted to the competent authority pursuant to article 32, an authorised insurance and reinsurance undertaking with its head office in Malta shall, disclose publicly, on an annual basis, a report on the undertaking's solvency and financial condition. The report shall contain the information determined by Insurance Rules made for the purposes of this article.

(2) The competent authority shall, upon a written request by an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking permit an undertaking not to disclose information where:

- (a) by disclosing such information, the competitors of the undertaking concerned would gain significant undue advantage;
- (b) there are obligations to policyholders or other counterparty relationships binding the undertaking concerned to secrecy or confidentiality.

(3) Where non-disclosure of information is permitted by the competent authority, the authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking concerned shall make a statement to this effect in its report on solvency and financial condition and shall state the reasons.

(4) The competent authority shall permit an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking to make use of or refer to public disclosures made under other legal or regulatory requirements, to the extent that those disclosures are equivalent to the information required to be submitted under subarticle (1) in both their nature and scope.

(5) Where the reason for any permitted non-disclosure obtained pursuant to subarticle (2) ceases to exist, the undertaking concerned shall inform the competent authority without undue delay and such undertaking shall comply with the obligations arising under subarticle (1).

(6) In the event of any major development affecting significantly the relevance of the information disclosed in accordance with this article, an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking shall disclose appropriate information on the nature and effects of that major development. The circumstances considered as major developments and the disclosures to be made by the undertaking in such circumstances shall be determined by an Insurance Rule.

(7) An authorised insurance and reinsurance undertaking may disclose, on a voluntary basis, any information or explanation related to their solvency and financial condition which is not already required to be disclosed in accordance with this article.

Custody of assets required to be maintained in Malta.	18G. (1) The competent authority may, with respect to assets which an undertaking, other than an undertaking whose business is restricted to reinsurance, is required by or under this Act to maintain in Malta, impose an additional requirement that the whole or a specified proportion of such assets shall be deposited with and held in custody for the undertaking's account by a person as may be prescribed by regulations made for the purposes of this article unless that requirement is otherwise imposed by any other provision of this Act; and the competent authority shall at all times have the right to demand from such person any information it may require to ensure that the provisions of this article are being complied with. (2) Any requirement by or under this Act that assets of any kind or amount are to be maintained in Malta shall be satisfied if such assets are maintained in such country outside Malta and in such form and manner to the satisfaction of the competent authority subject to such regulations as may be prescribed for such purpose under this Act. (3) Any provision by or under this Act requiring an undertaking to maintain in Malta assets of any kind or amount may be satisfied by the undertaking if the undertaking produces a security in a form and manner to the satisfaction of the competent authority subject to such regulations as may be prescribed for such purpose under this Act. (4) The assets required to be maintained in Malta by or under this Act shall not be transferred, withdrawn or in any way encumbered without the permission of the competent authority given in writing or until the company has ceased to carry on the business it was authorised to carry on and proves to the satisfaction of the authority that it has no further liability. Such assets shall not be attachable by any court.

PART VII

SUPERVISION OF AUTHORISED INSURANCE AND REINSURANCE UNDERTAKINGS

Power of the competent authority to require information. Amended by: XVII. 2002.253.	29. (1) Without prejudice to anything contained in any other provision of this Act which requires an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking to furnish to the competent authority any information or documentation, the competent authority may, by notice in writing, require any such undertaking or any person who appears to be in possession of any relevant information and, or documentation to do all or any of the following: - (a) to furnish to it, at such time and place and in such form as it may specify, such information and documentation as it may require including existing telephone and existing data traffic records, with respect to the business such undertaking is authorised to carry on; or with respect to any person with whom the undertaking has close links; (b) to furnish to it any information or documentation aforesaid verified in such manner and in such language, as it may specify;

(c) to attend before it, or before a person appointed by it, at such time and place as it may specify, to answer questions and provide information and documentation with respect to any such business as aforesaid.

(2) The competent authority may take copies of any documents furnished or provided under this article or extracts from them.

(3) Where an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking required to provide information or documentation under this article does not have the relevant information or documentation, it shall disclose to the competent authority where, to the best of its knowledge, that information or documentation is, and the competent authority may require any person including a person to which the undertaking has outsourced any activities or functions, whether indicated as aforesaid or not, who appears to it to be in possession of that information or documentation, to provide it.

(4) A statement made and documentation provided in pursuance of any requirement under this article may be used in evidence against the person making the statement or providing the documentation as well as against any person to whom they relate.

(5) The provisions of this article shall not apply to information or documentation which is privileged in accordance with the provisions of article 642 of the Criminal Code.

(6) The power to require the production of documentation under the provisions of this article shall be without prejudice to any lien or charge claimed by any person in relation to such documentation.

(7) Where the competent authority has appointed a person under subarticle (1)(c), such person shall, for the purposes of carrying out his functions under his appointment, have all the powers conferred on the competent authority by this article and a requirement made by him shall be deemed to be and have the same force and effect as a requirement of the competent authority.

(8) Without prejudice to the other provisions of this article, an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking may be required by the competent authority to submit to the Central Bank of Malta such information as the Bank may reasonably require for the discharge of its duties under the Central Bank of Malta Act.

Power of the competent authority to examine the affairs of authorised undertakings and service providers. Amended by: XII. 2006.95. Cap. 386.	30. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of the Companies Act relating to the investigation of undertakings, the competent authority may, whenever it deems it necessary or expedient, appoint one or more inspectors to investigate and report on the affairs of an authorised insurance and reinsurance undertaking and to report thereon to it. (2) An inspector appointed under subarticle (1) – (a) shall have and may exercise all the powers conferred on the competent authority by article 29, and any requirement made by him shall be deemed to be and have the same force and effect as a requirement of the competent authority; (b) may, and if so directed by the competent authority shall, make interim reports and on the conclusion of his examination shall make a final report to the said authority. (3) The competent authority may forward to the authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking concerned a copy of any report, or any part thereof, made by an inspector in respect of its affairs. (4) Where the affairs of an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking are under examination, it shall be the duty of all officers and agents of the undertaking to produce to an inspector all books and documents of or relating to the undertaking and otherwise to give to an inspector all assistance in connection with the examination which they are reasonably able to give; and if an officer or an agent of the undertaking refuses to produce any books or documents which it is his duty under this article to produce, or refuses to answer any question which is put to him by an inspector with respect to the affairs of the undertaking, an inspector shall refer the matter to the competent authority and the competent authority shall thereupon enquire into the case and take appropriate action as it deems necessary. (5) An inspector shall also be given access to any accounts, returns or other information relating to an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking whose affairs are under examination which are in the possession or under the control of the competent authority. (6) Where the information relating to an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking is in any language other than Maltese or English, the competent authority, or any inspector appointed by it, may require that this information be submitted in either the English or Maltese language.

(7) Where an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking outsources a function or activity, to a service provider located in a Member State or EEA State other than Malta, the competent authority shall inform the appropriate authority of the Member State or EEA State of the service provider prior to conducting an on-site inspection at the premises of the service provider. In the case of a non-supervised entity, the appropriate authority shall be the European regulatory authority concerned. The competent authority may delegate such on-site inspections to the European regulatory authority of the Member State or EEA State where the service provider is located.

(8) Where the competent authority has informed the European regulatory authority that it intends to carry out an on-site inspection in accordance with subarticle (7), or where it carries out an on-site inspection in accordance with subarticle (7), where the competent authority is unable in practice to exercise its right to carry out that on-site inspection, the competent authority may refer the matter to EIOPA and request its assistance in accordance with Article 19 of Regulation (EU) No. 1094/2010.

(9) The competent authority shall have the power to order that all expenses of, and incidental to, an examination pursuant to this article or such part thereof as it may deem appropriate, shall be paid by the undertaking concerned; and any sum so due shall be recoverable by the competent authority in the same manner as an administrative penalty imposed under this Act.

(10) In this article any reference to officers or to agents shall include a reference to former as well as present officers or agents and the expression “agents”, in relation to an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking, shall include an insurance agent, insurance manager or tied insurance intermediary, registered or enrolled under the Insurance Intermediaries Act, or registered with an authority or body in the Member State or EEA State responsible for the supervision of insurance intermediaries acting for the undertaking, the bankers, the auditors and, in the case of an undertaking authorised to carry on long term business, the actuary of the undertaking and a person as may be prescribed by regulations made for the purposes of article 18G.

(11) The powers available to the competent authority

	pursuant to Part VI and VII of the Act with regard to authorised insurance and reinsurance undertakings shall also be available with regard to the outsourced activities of such undertakings.
Right of entry to obtain information and documents. Cap. 386.	31. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of the Companies Act, relating to the entry and search of premises, any officer, employee or agent of the competent authority, on producing evidence of his authority, may enter premises occupied by a person on whom a notice has been served under article 29 or whose affairs are being investigated under article 30, for the purpose of obtaining there the information or documents required by that notice, or otherwise for the purpose of the examination, and of exercising any of the powers conferred by the said articles. (2) Where any officer, employee or agent of the competent authority has reasonable cause to believe that if such notice as is referred to in subarticle (1) were served it would not be complied with or that any documents to which it could relate would be removed, tampered with or destroyed, such person may, on producing if required, evidence of his authority, enter any premises referred to in subarticle (1) for the purpose of obtaining there any information or documents specified in the authority, being information or documents that could have been required under such notice as is referred to in subarticle (1). (3) For the purposes of any action taken under the provisions of this article, the competent authority may request the assistance of the Commissioner of Police, who may for such purpose exercise such powers as are vested in him for the prevention of offences and the enforcement of law and order: Provided that, where an entry as is mentioned in this article involves premises that are occupied for the purpose of habitation, such entry shall be carried out in the presence of an officer of the Police of a rank not below that of inspector and shall moreover not take place between nine in the evening and five in the morning.
Power to issue directives. Added by: XII. 2006.96.	31A. (1) Without prejudice to any of the powers conferred to it under this Act, the competent authority may, whenever it deems it necessary, give, by notice in writing, such directives as it may deem appropriate in the circumstances, and any person to whom or to which the notice is given shall obey, comply with and otherwise give effect to any such directive within the time and in the manner stated in the directive or further directive.

	(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this article, a directive under this article may – (a) require anything to be done or be omitted to be done, or impose any prohibition, restriction or limitation, or any other requirement, including any requirement emanating from European Union legislation, and confer powers, with respect to any transaction or other act, or to any assets, or to any other thing whatsoever; (b) require that any officer of an undertaking having functions in relation to the holder of an authorisation be prohibited, temporarily or otherwise, suspended from carrying out activities licensable under the Act, or removed, or removed and replaced, by another person acceptable to the competent authority; (3) The power to give directives under this article shall include the power to vary, alter, add to or withdraw any directive, as well as the power to issue new or further directives. (4) Where the competent authority is satisfied that the circumstances so warrant, it may at any time make public any directive it has given under any of the provisions of this article.
Supervisory review process	31B. (1) The competent authority shall review and evaluate the strategies, processes and reporting procedures which are established by the authorised undertakings to comply with the Act, regulations and Insurance Rules issued thereunder. That review and evaluation shall comprise the assessment of the qualitative requirements relating to the system of governance, the assessment of the risks which the undertakings concerned face or may face and the assessment of the ability of those undertakings to assess those risks taking into account the environment in which the undertakings are operating. (2) The competent authority shall in particular review and evaluate compliance with the following: (a) the system of governance, including the own-risk and solvency assessment, as set out in article 18I; (b) the technical provisions as provided for in article 18E; (c) the capital requirements as provided for in articles 15 and 17;

	(d) the investment rules as set out in Insurance Rules issued in terms of this Act; (e) the quality and quantity of own funds as determined by Insurance Rules issued pursuant to article 14; (f) where the authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking uses a full or partial internal model, on-going compliance with the requirements for full and partial internal models set out in Insurance Rules issued pursuant to article 15. (3) The competent authority shall assess the adequacy of the methods and practices of the authorised insurance or reinsurance undertakings designed to identify possible events or future changes in economic conditions that could have adverse effects on the overall financial standing of the undertaking concerned. (4) The competent authority shall assess the ability of the authorised undertakings to withstand those possible events or future changes in economic conditions. (5) Where the competent authority identifies any weakness or deficiency as a consequence of the supervisory review process, it shall request the insurance or reinsurance undertaking concerned to remedy such weakness or deficiency within such period and in such manner as it may deem necessary or appropriate in the circumstances. (6) The reviews, evaluations and assessments referred to in subarticles (1) to (4) of this article, shall be conducted regularly and the competent authority shall establish the minimum frequency and the scope of those reviews, evaluations and assessments having regard to the nature, scale and complexity of the activities of the insurance or reinsurance undertaking concerned. (7) In the case of events or future changes in economic conditions that could have unfavourable effects on the overall financial standing of authorised insurance or reinsurance undertakings, in addition to the calculation of the Solvency Capital Requirement, the competent authority may require undertakings to carry out such tests as may be determined to assess the ability of the undertakings concerned to withstand such events or future changes in economic conditions that could have unfavourable effects on their overall financial stability.

Power to set a capital add-on	31C. (1) Following the supervisory review process carried out in terms of article 31B, the competent authority may, in exceptional circumstances, set a capital add-on for an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking stating the reasons for its decision. Such power shall be exercised in the following cases: (a) where it concludes that the risk profile of the authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking deviates significantly from the assumptions underlying the Solvency Capital Requirement, as calculated using the standard formula in accordance with article 15 of the Act; and (i) the requirement to use an internal model under subarticle (3) of article 15 of the Act is inappropriate or has been ineffective; or the requirement to use an internal model under subarticle (3) of article 15 of the Act is inappropriate or has been ineffective; or (ii) while a partial or full internal model is being developed in accordance with subarticle (3) of article 15 of the Act; (b) where it concludes that the risk profile of the authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking deviates significantly from the assumptions underlying the Solvency Capital Requirement, as calculated using an internal model or partial internal model because certain quantifiable risks are captured insufficiently and the adaptation of the model to better reflect the given risk profile has failed within an appropriate timeframe; (c) where it concludes that the system of governance of an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking deviates significantly from the standards laid down in article 18I and Insurance Rules issued thereunder, that those deviations prevent the undertaking from being able to properly identify, measure, monitor, manage and report the risks that it is or could be exposed to and the application of other measures is in itself unlikely to improve the deficiencies sufficiently within an appropriate timeframe; (d) the authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking applies the matching adjustment referred to in Article 77b of the Solvency II Directive, the volatility adjustment referred to in Article 77d of the Solvency II Directive or the transitional measures referred to in Articles 308c and 308d

	of the Solvency II Directive and the competent authority concludes that the risk profile of that undertaking deviates significantly from the assumptions underlying those adjustments and transitional measures; or (e) in any of those circumstances as may be additionally specified by the Solvency II Directive. (2) In the circumstances set out: (a) in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subarticle (1), the capital add-on shall be calculated in such a way as to ensure that the undertaking complies with Article 101(3) of the Solvency II Directive; (b) in paragraph (c) of subarticle (1), the capital add-on shall be proportionate to the material risk arising from the deficiencies which gave rise to the decision of the competent authority to set the add-on; and (c) in paragraph (d) of subarticle (1), the capital add-on shall be proportionate to the material risk arising from the deviation referred to in that paragraph. (3) In the cases set out in paragraphs (b) and (c) of subarticle (1), the authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking shall remedy the deficiencies that led to the imposition of the capital add-on without delay. (4) The competent authority shall review the capital-add on, at least once a year and it shall approve the removal of such capital add-on when the undertaking has remedied the deficiencies which led to its imposition. (5) The Solvency Capital Requirement including the capital add-on imposed shall replace the inadequate Solvency Capital Requirement: Provided that the Solvency Capital Requirement shall not include the capital add-on imposed in accordance with subarticle (1)(c), for the purposes of the calculation of the risk margin referred to in Article 77(5) of the Solvency II Directive.
Information to be provided for supervisory purposes.	32. An authorised insurance undertaking and reinsurance undertaking shall submit to the competent authority the information which is necessary for the purposes of supervision, taking into account the objectives of supervision, as may be specified by means of Insurance Rules which shall also specify the period within which this information is to be submitted.

insurance or reinsurance undertaking encounters financial difficulties.

(3) Where the competent authority is the group supervisor or is one of the authorities responsible for the supervision of an individual insurance or reinsurance undertaking in a group, it shall-

(a) provide other authorities responsible for the supervision of an individual insurance or reinsurance undertaking in a group with such information so as to allow and facilitate the exercise of the supervisory tasks concerned under the Solvency II Directive;

(b) communicate all relevant information to such authorities without delay, as soon as it becomes available or exchange information on request; and

(c) call immediately for a meeting of all the authorities involved in the supervision of the group, where –

(i) it becomes aware of a significant breach of the Solvency Capital Requirement or a breach of the Minimum Capital Requirement of an individual insurance or reinsurance undertaking;

(ii) it becomes aware of a significant breach of the Solvency Capital Requirement at group level calculated on the basis of consolidated data or the aggregated group Solvency Capital Requirement, in accordance with whichever calculation method is used pursuant to the Insurance Rules made for the purpose of implementing the calculation methods indicated in Title III, Chapter II, Section I, Subsection 4 of the Solvency II Directive; or

(iii) other exceptional circumstances are occurring or have occurred.

(4) Where one of the authorities responsible for the supervision of an individual insurance or reinsurance undertaking in a group has not communicated relevant information, or a request for cooperation in particular to exchange relevant information has been rejected or has not been acted upon within two weeks, the competent may refer the matter to EIOPA.

(5) Where the group supervisor fails to carry out the tasks referred to in subarticle (3) of article 32B or where the members of the college of supervisors do not cooperate to the extent required by that subarticle, the competent authority may refer the matter to EIOPA and request its assistance in accordance with Article 19 of Regulation (EU) No 1094/2010.

(6) Where the competent authority is the group supervisor, it shall provide the authorities responsible for the supervision of an individual insurance or reinsurance undertaking in a group and EIOPA with information regarding the group in accordance with Article 19, subarticle (1) of article 51 and subarticle (2) of article 254 of the Solvency II Directive, in particular regarding the legal structure and the governance and organisational structure of the group.

(7) Without prejudice to article 32B of the Act, the competent authority shall, where a decision is of importance for the supervisory tasks of the other authorities responsible for the supervision of an individual insurance or reinsurance undertaking in a group, prior to taking any decision, consult the said authorities in the college of supervisors with regard to the following:

(a) changes in the shareholding structure, organisational or management structure of an authorised insurance and reinsurance undertaking which is part of a group and which requires the approval or authorisation of the competent authority;

(b) the decision on the extension of the recovery period in accordance with article 16 of the Act;

(c) major sanctions or exceptional measures taken by the competent authority, including the imposition of a capital add-on to the Solvency Capital Requirement under article 32C of the Act and the imposition of any limitation on the use of an internal model for the calculation of the Solvency Capital Requirement as determined in Insurance Rules made for the purposes of Title I, Chapter VI, Section 4, Subsection 3 of the Solvency II Directive.

(8) For the purposes of paragraphs (b) and (c) of subarticle (7) and where the competent authority is not the group supervisor, the group supervisor shall always be consulted.

(9) Where the competent authority is considering a decision based on information received from other authorities responsible for the supervision of an individual insurance or reinsurance undertaking in a group, it shall consult such authorities concerned before taking that decision.

(10) Without prejudice to article 32B, the competent authority may decide not to consult other authorities in cases of urgency or where such consultation may jeopardise the effectiveness of its decision. In such a case, the competent authority shall, without delay, inform the other authorities responsible for the supervision of an individual insurance or reinsurance undertaking in a group.

(11) Where the competent authority is the group supervisor and requires information from an undertaking for the purposes of Article 254(2) of the Solvency II Directive, which has already been given to another authority responsible for the supervision of an individual insurance or reinsurance undertaking in a group, the competent authority shall, whenever possible, contact that authority to obtain such information.

(12) Where a parent undertaking has its head office in Malta and the competent authority is not the group supervisor pursuant to Article 247 of the Solvency II Directive, the competent authority shall, upon request by the group supervisor, require the parent undertaking to provide any relevant information for the exercise of group supervision as set out in article 32B of the Act, and the competent authority shall transmit such information to the group supervisor.

(13) Where the competent authority is the group supervisor, it may ask the European regulatory authority of a parent undertaking which has its head office in another Member State, to request such undertaking to submit any information which would be relevant for the exercise of its co-ordination rights and duties as set out in article 32B of the Act and to transmit it directly to the competent authority.

(14) Information received for the purposes of this article shall be treated as confidential and protected by the duty of professional secrecy.

Verification of Information.	32D. (1) Without prejudice to article 30, the competent authority may carry out itself, or through a person appointed for that purpose, on-site verification of information referred to in Article 254 of the Solvency II Directive on the premises of any of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking which is subject to group supervision; (b) related undertakings of the undertaking referred to in sub-paragraph (a); (c) parent undertakings of the undertaking referred to in sub-paragraph (a); (d) related undertakings of a parent undertaking of the undertaking referred to in sub-paragraph (a). (2) Where the competent authority requires, in specific cases, to verify information concerning an undertaking, whether regulated or not, which forms part of a group and is situated in another Member State, the competent authority shall: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) request the European regulatory authority to enable the competent authority to carry out the verification itself; or (b) request the European regulatory authority to carry out such verification on its behalf; (c) request the European regulatory authority to appoint an auditor or an expert to carry out such verification; or (d) in cases where it does not carry out the verification itself, request to participate in the carrying out of such verification. (3) Where the competent authority receives a request by a European regulatory authority to verify information concerning an undertaking, whether regulated or not, which forms part of a group and is situated in Malta and when: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) a European regulatory authority makes a request to the competent authority to carry out the verification of the information, the competent authority shall

(b) except in so far as the competent authority has otherwise directed, a copy of the notice has been sent by the transferor to every policyholder affected by the scheme and every other person who claims an interest in a policy included in the proposed transfer and has given notice of his claim to the transferor;

(c) copies of a statement setting out particulars of the transfer and approved for the purpose by the competent authority have been available for inspection –

(i) at each of the branches, agencies and offices of the transferor in Malta;

(ii) except in so far as the competent authority has otherwise directed, where the transferor is an undertaking which carries on business from Malta or in or from a country outside Malta and, as regards any policy included in the proposed transfer which evidences a contract of insurance, the risk is a risk situated outside Malta, at one or more places in the country where the risk is situated,

for a period of not less than thirty days beginning with a date to be determined by the competent authority.

(3) The notice referred to in subarticle (2) shall include a statement that written representations concerning the transfer may be sent to the competent authority within a period to be specified by the competent authority; and the competent authority shall not determine the application until after considering any representations made to it before the specified day.

(4) The competent authority shall not approve a transfer on an application made under subarticle (1) unless it is satisfied that –

(a) (i) the transferee is, or immediately after the approval will be, authorised under article 7 to carry on general business of the class or classes or part classes to be transferred under the scheme;

(ii) the transferee is, or immediately after the approval will be, authorised under article 14 or article 162 of the Solvency II Directive to carry on general business of the class or classes or part classes to be transferred under the scheme in a Member State or EEA State; or

(iii) if the transferee does not fall within subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of this paragraph, the transferee has the authorisation required to enable the business, or part which is to be transferred, to be carried on in the place to which it is to be transferred, or will have it before the scheme takes effect; and

(b) (i) the transferee referred to in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (a) of this subarticle possesses, after taking the proposed transfer into account, the necessary eligible own funds to cover the Solvency Capital Requirement required to be maintained under this Act;

(ii) the transferee referred to in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of this subarticle possesses, after taking the proposed transfer into account the necessary eligible own funds to cover the Solvency Capital Requirement provided for in article 100 of the Solvency II Directive; or

(iii) if the transferee does not fall within subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of this paragraph, the transferee possesses, or will possess before the scheme takes effect, the solvency requirements required of it by, or under, the law applicable in the place to which the business is being transferred; and

(c) (i) if the transferee is an undertaking authorised under this Act, the transferee's financial resources are, consequential to the transfer, adequate to fulfil the other obligations required of it by, or under, this Act; or

(ii) if the transferee is a European insurance undertaking, the transferee's financial resources are consequential to the transfer, adequate to fulfil the other obligations required of it by, or under, the law applicable in the place to which the business is being transferred; or

(iii) if the transferee is a third country insurance undertaking, the transferee's financial resources are, consequential to the transfer, adequate to fulfil the other obligations required of it by, or under, the law applicable in the place to which the business is being transferred; and

(d) if the transferor is an undertaking whose head office is in Malta, and the establishment from which the policies are to be transferred is situated in a Member State or EEA State –

(i) the European regulatory authority in that Member State or EEA State has been consulted about the proposed transfer; and

(ii) the European regulatory authority has either responded or the period of three months beginning with the consultation has elapsed;

(e) if the transferor is an undertaking which carries on business from Malta or in or from a country outside Malta and, as regards any policy included in the proposed transfer which

	evidences a contract of insurance, the risk is a risk situated outside Malta – (i) the European regulatory authority in the country where the risk is situated has been notified of the proposed transfer; (ii) the overseas regulatory authority where the risk is situated has been notified of the proposed transfer; and (iii) either the European regulatory authority or the overseas regulatory authority has consented to the transfer or the European regulatory authority or the overseas regulatory authority has not refused its consent to the transfer within the period of three months beginning with the date of the notification. (5) On determining an application made under subarticle (1), the competent authority shall – (a) publish a notice of its decision in such manner as it may think fit; and (b) send a copy of that notice to the transferor, the transferee and every person who made representations in accordance with the notice referred to in subarticle (2), and if it refuses the application it shall inform the transferor and the transferee in writing of the reasons for its refusal.
Effect of approval under article 33.	34. (1) Subject to subarticle (2), a scheme giving effect to a transfer approved by the competent authority under article 33 shall be effectual in law – (a) to transfer to the transferee all the transferor's rights and obligations under the policies included in the transfer scheme; and (b) if the scheme so provides, to secure the continuation by or against the transferee of any legal proceedings by or against the transferor which relate to those rights or obligations, notwithstanding the absence of any agreements or consents which would otherwise be necessary for it to be effectual in law for those purposes. (2) A transfer approved by the competent authority

	shall automatically be valid against policyholders, the insured persons and any other person having rights or obligations arising out of the contracts transferred. (3) Except in so far as the competent authority may otherwise direct, a policyholder whose policy is included in such a scheme shall be given written notice of its carrying out by the transferee.

XII. 2006.99;
XX. 2007.133;
III. 2009.26.
Substituted by:
XVII. 2009.31.

38. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, any person or persons acting in concert (hereinafter referred to in this Act as the "proposed acquirer"), who have taken a decision either to –

(a) acquire, directly or indirectly, a qualifying shareholding in an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking;

(b) increase, directly or indirectly, an existing shareholding which is not a qualifying shareholding so as to cause it to become a qualifying shareholding in an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking; or

(c) further increase, directly or indirectly, such qualifying shareholding in an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking as a result of which the proportion of the voting rights or of the capital held would reach or exceed twenty per centum, thirty per centum or fifty per centum or so that the authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking would become its subsidiary,

(hereinafter referred to as the "proposed acquisition"), shall notify the competent authority in writing of any such decision, indicating the size of the intended shareholding and providing any relevant information as and in the manner that the competent authority may by Insurance Rules require, including the form in which such notification shall be made and the criteria adopted by the competent authority in determining whether such person is a fit and proper person.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, any person who has taken a decision either to –

(a) dispose, directly or indirectly, of a qualifying shareholding in an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking;

(b) reduce, directly or indirectly, a qualifying shareholding so as to cause it to cease to be a qualifying shareholding; or

(c) reduce, directly or indirectly, a qualifying shareholding so that the proportion of the voting rights or of the capital held would fall below twenty per centum, thirty per centum or fifty per centum or so that the authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking would cease to be its subsidiary, shall notify the competent authority in writing of any such decision indicating the size of the intended shareholding and providing any relevant information as and in the manner that the competent authority may by Insurance Rules require.

(3) Subarticles (1) and (2) shall apply irrespective of whether or not any of the relevant shares are shares listed on any regulated market.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subarticles (1) and (2), it shall be the duty of an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking and of the directors thereof, to notify the competent authority forthwith upon becoming aware that any person intends to take any of the actions set out in these subarticles.

(5) If any person or any authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking takes or intends to take any action set out in subarticle (1) or (2) without notifying the competent authority or obtaining its approval in terms of article 38A, then, without prejudice to any other penalty which may be imposed under this Act, the competent authority shall have the power to make an order:

(a) restraining such person or authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking from taking, or continuing with, such action;

(b) declaring such action to be void and of no effect;

(c) requiring such person or authorised insurance or reinsurance to take such steps as may be necessary to restore the position existing immediately before the action was taken;

(d) restraining such person or authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking from exercising any rights which such action would, if lawful, have conferred upon them, including the right to receive any payment or to exercise any voting rights attaching to the shares acquired;

(e) restraining such person or authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking from taking any similar action or any other action within the categories set out in subarticles (1) and (2).

	(6) Without prejudice to any other provision of this Act, where the influence exercised by any person acquiring or proposing to acquire a qualifying shareholding is, or is likely to, operate against the sound and prudent management of an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking, the competent authority may exercise any of its powers under this Act to put an end to such situation, including the power to issue directives as it may deem reasonable in the circumstances. (7) In the case of a third country insurance or reinsurance undertaking authorised under this Act to carry on in or from Malta the business of insurance, the provisions of this article shall apply to the extent only of requiring such undertaking to give to the competent authority, not later than thirty days from such change or occurrence, as the case may be, the information therein referred to. (8) The competent authority, may, by means of Insurance Rules issued under this Act, indicate the circumstances when persons are to be regarded as "acting in concert".

Assessment procedure. Added by: XVII. 2009. 32.	38A. (1) The competent authority shall, promptly and in any event within two working days following receipt of the notification required under article 38(1), as well as following the possible subsequent receipt of the information referred to in subarticle (4), acknowledge receipt thereof in writing to the proposed acquirer. (2) The competent authority shall have a maximum of sixty working days as from the date of the written acknowledgement of receipt of the notification required under article 38(1) and all documents required by the competent authority to be attached to such notification (hereinafter referred to in this Act as the "assessment period") to carry out an assessment on the basis of such information as may be determined by Insurance Rules issued for this purpose. (3) The competent authority shall inform the proposed acquirer of the date of the expiry of the assessment period at the time of acknowledging receipt. (4) The competent authority may, during the assessment period, if necessary and no later than on the fiftieth working day of such period, request any further information that is necessary to complete the assessment. Such a request shall be made in writing and shall specify the additional information needed.

(5) During the period between the date of request for additional information by the competent authority and the receipt of a response thereto by the proposed acquirer, the assessment period shall be interrupted. The interruption period shall not exceed twenty working days. Any further requests by the competent authority for completion or clarification of the information shall be at its discretion but shall not result in an interruption of such assessment period.

(6) The competent authority may extend the interruption period referred to in subarticle (5) up to thirty working days if the proposed acquirer is:

(a) situated or regulated in a non-Member State or non-EEA state; or

(b) a person not subject to supervision under:

(i) Directive 2004/39/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 April 2004 on markets in financial instruments amending Council Directives 85/611/EEC and 93/6/EEC and Directive 2000/12/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council and repealing Council Directive 93/22/EEC;

(ii) Directive 2006/48/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 June 2006 relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions (recast);

(iii) Directive 2009/65/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of the 13th July 2009 on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS)(recast);

(iv) Solvency II Directive.

(7) The competent authority shall, upon completion of the assessment referred to in subarticle (2) and not later than the date of the expiry of the assessment period, issue a notice:

(a) granting unconditional approval to the proposed acquisition;

(b) granting approval to the proposed acquisition subject to such conditions as the competent authority may deem appropriate; or

(c) refusing the proposed acquisition.

	(8) In making the assessment referred to in subarticle (2), the competent authority shall neither impose any prior conditions in respect of the level of shareholding that must be acquired nor examine the proposed acquisition in terms of the economic needs of the market. (9) The competent authority may refuse the proposed acquisition only if there are reasonable grounds for doing so on the basis of the criteria set out in Insurance Rules referred to in article 38(1) or if the information provided by the proposed acquirer is incomplete. (10) If the competent authority decides to refuse the proposed acquisition, it shall, within two working days, and not exceeding the assessment period, inform the proposed acquirer in writing specifying the reasons for such decision. The competent authority may, whether at the request of such proposed acquirer or not, issue a public statement indicating such reasons. (11) If the competent authority does not refuse the proposed acquisition in writing within the assessment period, such proposed acquisition shall be deemed to be approved. (12) Without prejudice to any other measure which may be taken under this Act, where a qualifying shareholding in an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking is acquired notwithstanding the refusal of the competent authority, the exercise of the corresponding voting rights shall be suspended and any of the votes cast in contravention of this article shall be null and void. (13) The competent authority may fix a maximum period for concluding the proposed acquisition and extend it where appropriate. (14) Notwithstanding the provisions of subarticles (1) to (6), where two or more proposals to acquire or increase qualifying shareholdings in the same authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking have been notified to the competent authority, the latter shall treat the proposed acquirers in a non-discriminatory manner.
Co-operation with European regulatory authorities or overseas regulatory authorities in the case of acquisitions. Added by:	38B. (1) The competent authority shall work in full consultation with the European regulatory authorities when carrying out the assessment referred to in article 38A if the proposed acquirer is one of the following:

XXVII. 2009.33.	(a) a credit institution, insurance undertaking, reinsurance undertaking, investment firm or UCITS management company authorised in another Member State or EEA State or in a sector other than that in which the acquisition is proposed; (b) the parent undertaking of a credit institution, insurance undertaking, reinsurance undertaking, investment firm or UCITS management company authorised in another Member State or EEA State or in a sector other than that in which the acquisition is proposed; or (c) a person controlling a credit institution, insurance undertaking, reinsurance undertaking, investment firm or UCITS management company authorised in another Member State or EEA State or in a sector other than that in which the acquisition is proposed. (2) The competent authority shall, without undue delay, provide any information which is essential or relevant for the assessment referred to in article 38A to the European regulatory authority requesting such information. Upon request, the competent authority shall communicate to the European regulatory authority all relevant information and shall communicate on its own initiative all essential information. A decision by the competent authority in terms of article 38A shall indicate any views or reservations expressed by the European regulatory authority responsible for the proposed acquirer. (3) The procedure set out in subarticle (1) shall apply mutatis mutandis where the proposed acquirer is authorised or established in a third country.
Mergers, reconstructions, divisions and changes in share capital or voting rights. Added by: XXVII. 2009.34.	38C. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law and without prejudice to article 38(1) and (2), the consent of the competent authority given in writing shall be required before an authorised undertaking may lawfully: (a) merge with any other undertaking, whether authorised under this Act or not; (b) undergo any reconstruction or division; or (c) increase or reduce its nominal or issued share capital or effect any material change in voting rights. (2) It shall be the duty of all directors and qualifying shareholders of an authorised undertaking to notify the competent authority forthwith in writing upon becoming aware that such undertaking intends to take any of the actions set out in subarticle (1).

(3) Within three months of receipt of such notification or receipt of such information as the competent authority may lawfully require, whichever is the later, the competent authority shall issue a notice –

(a) granting unconditional consent to the taking of the action;

(b) granting consent to the taking of the action subject to such conditions as the competent authority may deem appropriate; or

(c) refusing consent to the taking of the action, and if it refuses to grant consent it shall inform the person or the authorised undertaking concerned in writing of the reason for its refusal.

(4) If any person or any authorised undertaking takes or decides to take any action set out in subarticle (1) without obtaining the consent of the competent authority, then, without prejudice to any other penalty which may be imposed under this Act, the competent authority shall have the power to make an order:

(a) restraining such person or authorised undertaking from taking or continuing with such action;

(b) declaring such action to be void and of no effect;

(c) requiring such person or authorised undertaking to take such steps as may be necessary to restore the position existing immediately before the action was taken;

(d) restraining such person or authorised undertaking from exercising any rights which such action would, if lawful, have conferred upon them, including the right to receive any payment or to exercise any voting rights attaching to the shares acquired;

(e) restraining such person or authorised undertaking from taking any similar action or any other action within the categories set out in subarticle(1).

Undertakings ceasing to carry on business.

Amended by:
XVII. 2002.256;
XII. 2006.100.

39. (1) Subject to the following provisions of this article, if an authorised insurance undertaking intends to cease either wholly or partly to carry on the business it is authorised to carry on, such undertaking shall, not later than six months before the date on which it intends to cease to carry on such business, give notice thereof in writing to the competent authority and the authorised insurance undertaking shall comply with any provision of this Act that may be required of it in such circumstances.

(2) Where an authorised insurance undertaking gives notice to the competent authority under subarticle (1), the competent authority –

(a) shall require the undertaking to –

(i) give publicity to the matter, amongst its policyholders and in the press in the form and manner as may be determined by Insurance Rules made for the purpose of this article;

(ii) discharge all its liabilities to its policyholders and creditors in a manner acceptable to the competent authority;

(iii) appoint a person which shall service or, as the case may be, run-off such business; and

(b) may require the undertaking to ascertain that its technical provisions meet the requirements of article 18E of the Act.

(3) The competent authority shall, not later than thirty days before the proposed date on which an authorised insurance undertaking as aforesaid intends to cease to carry on the business it is authorised to carry on, issue a permit to the authorised insurance undertaking concerned –

(a) authorising it to cease to carry on such business and to service or run-off that business, as from a specified date;

(b) specifying the conditions under which such service or run-off shall be carried out; and

(c) authorising a person to carry out such service or runoff.

Undertakings carrying out servicing or run-off of business of insurance.	40. Every authorised insurance undertaking issued under article 39 with a permit authorising it to cease to carry on the business it is authorised to carry on, shall not, as from the date specified in the permit ("the specified date"), effect and carry out any new contracts of insurance in the business mentioned in the permit but shall – (a) in the case of long term business, service or cause the person named in the permit to service on its behalf; (b) in the case of general business run-off or cause the person named in the permit to run-off on its behalf, contracts of insurance effected and carried out by it before the specified date.

Reinsurance undertakings ceasing and carrying out servicing or run-off of business of insurance.	40A. The provisions of articles 39 and 40 shall apply mutatis mutandis to undertakings whose business is restricted to reinsurance.

Malta, prohibit the free disposal of the assets of the undertaking whether such assets are situated in Malta or in country outside Malta; and

(b) in the case of a third country insurance undertaking, prohibit the free disposal of the assets of the undertaking situated in Malta or in any other country if such assets relate to the undertaking's business in Malta, if such prohibition has not been imposed on the insurance undertaking by virtue of or under any other provision of this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the assets of an authorised insurance undertaking which are prohibited under subarticle (2) or by virtue of or under any other provision of this Act to be freely disposed of shall be available only for meeting the liabilities of the undertaking attributable to its business of insurance:

Provided that debts and other liabilities arising out of contracts of insurance attributable to its business of insurance shall rank before any other claim against such assets.

(4) Where the value of the assets mentioned in subarticle (3) exceeds the amount of the liabilities mentioned in that subarticle the restriction imposed by that subarticle shall not apply to so much of those assets as represents the excess.

(5) In so far as the provisions of this article are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law, the provisions of this article shall prevail, and the provisions of any other law shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, not apply to such undertakings.

(6) The Minister may, after consultation with the competent authority, make regulations in respect of the winding-up or reorganisation of an authorised insurance undertaking whose head office is in Malta, including their branches, if any, and of branches of third country insurance undertakings, and different provisions may be made for different cases or classes of cases, and account shall be taken of Malta's international commitments in this regard. Such regulations may provide for the implementation of detailed re-organisation measures and procedures, including the following matters: the publication and submission of information in such language or languages and in such newspapers or other publications as may be prescribed, the submission of information to creditors, and the manner and procedure thereof, the notification to creditors and the procedure

	for the submission of claims or representations, measures for the protection of the rights of creditors and other third parties, including set-off arrangements; consultation between the competent authority and any other regulatory, administrative or judicial authorities in Malta and outside Malta with competence over the winding-up or re-organisation of such undertakings or of branches thereof; the publication of decisions relating to such winding-up or re-organisation procedures; the establishment of rules governing the applicability of the proper or applicable law and other issues of conflict of laws. (7) Where an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking takes a decision to dissolve and wind up, it shall immediately notify, in writing, the competent authority of such decision before taking any further action to that effect. (8) (a) An authorised reinsurance undertaking with its head office in Malta shall dissolve and wind up in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act. (b) A third country reinsurance undertaking shall dissolve and wind up in accordance with the laws of the country where the head office of such undertaking is situated governing the dissolution and winding up of such undertakings.
Dissolution and winding up of an authorised undertaking with long term business.	42. (1) An authorised undertaking whose head office is in Malta, carrying on long term business may not be dissolved and consequently wound up voluntarily without the consent of the competent authority. (2) It shall be the duty of an authorised undertaking and the directors thereof, to notify the competent authority forthwith upon becoming aware of any measures to be taken in terms of subarticle (1) of this article. (3) Without prejudice to the provisions contained in article 41, in the event of an undertaking as aforesaid being dissolved and wound up – (a) the assets representing the technical provisions maintained by the undertaking in respect of its long term business shall be available only for meeting the liabilities of the undertaking attributable to that business; (b) the other assets of the undertaking shall be available only for meeting the liabilities of the undertaking attributable to its other business.

	(4) Where the value of the assets mentioned in either paragraph (a) or (b) of subarticle (3) exceeds the amount of the liabilities mentioned in either paragraph the restriction imposed by that subarticle shall not apply to so much of those assets as represents the excess.

CONDUCT OF BUSINESS OF INSURANCE

Changes in documentation or information. Amended by: XVII. 2002.258; XII. 2006.101; XVII. 2009.35.	43. (1) The holder of an authorisation issued under this Act to carry on the business of insurance and the holder of a permit issued thereunder to service or run-off that business shall notify in writing the competent authority of any material changes in the documentation or information provided or required to be provided by or under this Act and any regulations made thereunder, or any Insurance Rules, as soon as the holder becomes aware of such changes. (2) Without prejudice to article 38, an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking shall: (a) before making any addition or alteration to the memorandum or articles of association or other instrument constituting the undertaking, submit in writing to the competent authority particulars of the proposed addition or alteration for its prior consent; and no such addition or alteration shall be made or shall be registered, or shall take effect, whether it is registered or not, unless and until the competent authority has signified its consent in writing; and (b) at least once a year, inform the competent authority of the names of the persons holding a qualifying shareholding in the undertaking and the percentage of such holding; and the competent authority may, by Insurance Rules made for the purposes of this article, determine the form, manner and content of the information to be forwarded to it and the date by which such information shall be forwarded shall also be established by that rule. (3) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions of this article, an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking shall notify the competent authority on a continuous basis, with any change or circumstances which may give rise to the existence of close links.

Statutory notice by an authorised undertaking in relation to long term policy. Amended by: XIII. 2006. 102	44. (1) No insurance undertaking authorised under this Act to carry on long term business shall enter into a contract of insurance the effecting of which constitutes the carrying on of long term business, unless such undertaking either - (a) has served on the other party to the contract by means as may be prescribed a statutory notice in relation to that contract; or (b) does so at the time when the contract is entered into. (2) Regulations under this article may be made with respect to any matter related to a statutory notice; and the regulations may exempt from any requirement contracts as may therein be prescribed. (3) For the purposes of this article a statutory notice is a notice which - (a) contains such matters (and no others) and is in such form as may be prescribed and complies with such requirements as may be prescribed for securing that the notice is easily intelligible; and (b) has annexed to it a form of notice of cancellation of a description as may be prescribed for serving by means as may be prescribed a notice of cancellation on the authorised undertaking.
Linked long term policies.	45. Regulations may be made, as respects the matters as may therein be prescribed, in relation to contracts of insurance the effecting of which constitutes the carrying on of long term business and which - (a) are entered into by an insurance undertaking whose head office is in Malta authorised under this Act to carry on long term business; and (b) are contracts under which the benefits payable to the policyholder are wholly or partly to be determined by reference to the value of, or the income from, property of any description (whether or not specified in the contract) or by reference to fluctuations in, or in an index of, the value of property of any description (whether or not so specified).

Contracts of insurance not voidable by insurer notwithstanding a breach of this Act or of the Insurance Intermediaries Act. Substituted by: XII. 2006.103. Cap. 487.	46. No contract of insurance shall be held void or voidable by an insurer by reason only that, at the time the contract is entered into, there is a breach of any provision of this Act or of the Insurance Intermediaries Act, (in this article referred to as "the Act") and of any regulations made under this Act or under the Act or of any insurance rule issued in virtue of this Act or any insurance intermediaries rule issued in virtue of the Act.
Contracts to be expressed in a specified language. Amended by: XVII. 2002.259; XII. 2006.104.	47. (1) The competent authority may by Insurance Rules made for the purpose of this article determine the language in which a contract of insurance relating to a risk which is a risk situated in Malta or to a commitment where Malta is the country of the commitment of a class or classes or part classes of business as may therein be specified is to be expressed. (2) In the absence of any such insurance rule, the contract shall be expressed in the English language. (3) The provisions of this article shall not apply to an undertaking whose business in or from Malta is restricted to reinsurance.
Insurance advertisements. Amended by: XVII. 2002.259; XII. 2006.105.	48. (1) No insurance undertaking authorised under this Act shall issue or cause to be issued any advertisement or carry out or cause to be carried any promotional activity related to the business of insurance which misleads, or directly or by implication is likely to mislead, or deceive any prospective policyholder, or the insurance sector in general, or the general public with respect to its assets or corporate structure or financial standing or authorisation or any other material respect: Provided that, in the case of an undertaking whose head office is in Malta, the provisions of this subarticle shall also apply with respect to – (a) an advertisement issued or caused to be issued; and (b) a promotional activity as aforesaid carried out or caused to be carried out, from Malta or in or from a country outside Malta. (2) The competent authority may by Insurance Rules made for the purposes of this article determine the form and content of insurance advertisements and make different provision in relation to insurance advertisements of different classes or part classes or descriptions; and the manner in which

	any promotional activity as aforesaid shall be carried out or caused to be carried out. (3) The provisions of subarticle (2) shall not apply to an authorised undertaking if its business is restricted to reinsurance. (4) Where an undertaking issues or causes to be issued an advertisement or carries out or causes to be carried out any promotional activity which is in breach of or does not comply with any of the provisions of subarticle (1) or (2), the competent authority may issue an order directing the undertaking – (a) to withdraw, wholly or partly, the advertisement or promotional activity; or (b) to amend any particular of the advertisement or promotional activity; or (c) to do such other thing as it deems appropriate in the circumstances. (5) If an undertaking refuses or fails to comply with any order issued by the competent authority under subarticle (4) or refuses or fails to comply with such order within the time specified therein, without prejudice to any penalty which the undertaking may incur under this Act, the competent authority shall have the power to enforce, at the expense of the undertaking concerned, the order issued by it under that subarticle.
Provisions relating to Lloyd's. Added by: XII. 2006.106.	48A. (1) For the purposes of the article "syndicate" means a member or group of members of Lloyd's underwriting business of insurance at Lloyd's through the agency of a managing agent to which a particular syndicate number is assigned by or under the authority of the Council of Lloyd's. (2) Where the members of Lloyd's carry on business of insurance in Malta, they shall carry on such business in exercise of a European Right. (3) Lloyd's shall at all times have a representative in Malta who shall be resident in Malta and who shall be the representative in Malta of Lloyd's and of each of its members. The representative shall be designated by a letter addressed to the competent authority by the chairman of Lloyd's.

(4) The representative shall for the purposes of this Act be authorised to act generally as judicial representative of, and accept service of any document on behalf of, Lloyd's and of each of its members and to file any judicial acts in the registry of any court or similar authority in Malta on behalf of Lloyd's or any of its members. The general representative shall not be personally liable for the debts and obligations of Lloyd's or any of its members.

(5) It shall be sufficient in any judicial act (other than an application for the issue of any precautionary or executive warrant) filed by or against members of Lloyd's in connection with a policy underwritten by them to file the act in the name of the Lloyd's representative in Malta as representative of those members; provided the act contains a statement that it is being filed in connection with a policy of insurance underwritten by members of Lloyd's and giving particulars of the number reference and date of the policy in respect of which the act is filed, the identifying number of each of the syndicates subscribing thereto and, where known, the names of the members of Lloyd's comprising those syndicates. This subarticle shall apply notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in the Code of Organization and Civil Procedure.

(6) The Lloyd's representative shall within forty-five days after the filing by him of the judicial act, or of its service on him, as the case may be, file a note in the records of the judicial act filed as aforesaid containing a list of the names of the members comprising the syndicates subscribing to the policy and any such note shall be deemed to be an integral part of the judgment or decree emanating from the court subsequent to the judicial act and such judgment or decree shall be binding on the members whose names are listed in the note in the same manner as it would so have bound them if they had been named as parties to the said judicial act:

Provided that, the Lloyd's representatives shall not be bound to file any such note following the filing of any judicial act where particulars of the names of the members of Lloyd's comprising those syndicates are already contained in the act or where any such note has already been filed in the records of the case.

(7) Any judicial act (other than an application for the issue of any precautionary or executive warrant) filed by or against Lloyd's underwriters in connection with a policy underwritten by them may be served upon the Lloyd's general representative in Malta at its address in Malta as listed in the register of the Registrar of Companies.

Appointment of insurance intermediaries. Added by: XII. 2006.107. Cap. 487.	48B. (1) Every authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking shall utilise the services of insurance intermediaries which are: (a) enrolled under the Insurance Intermediaries Act; or (b) registered under article 3 of Directive 2002/92/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 9 December 2002 on insurance mediation; or (c) registered or regulated to carry out such services in a non-Member State or non-EEA State in accordance with the provisions of the laws applicable in such State.
Policy conditions and scales of premium.	48C. (1) An authorised undertaking shall not be required to submit to the competent authority: (a) for its prior approval or systematically notify the competent authority of general and special policy conditions, of scales of premiums, of the technical bases, used in particular for calculating scales of premiums and technical provisions, or of forms and other printed documents which the authorised undertaking intends to use in its dealings with policy holders or ceding or retro-ceding undertakings; (b) prior notification of premium rates or proposed increases of premium rates, other than as part of general price-control systems. (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subarticle (1), the competent authority may : (a) in respect of general business, require the notification of the policy conditions, other documents and information referred to in subarticle (1) for the purpose of verifying compliance with the law applicable to contracts of insurance; (b) in respect of long term business, require the notification of the technical bases used in particular for calculating scales of premiums and technical provisions for the sole purpose of verifying compliance with any actuarial principles which may

	be established by the Act, regulations or Insurance Rules issued thereunder.

PROTECTION AND COMPENSATION FUND

Establishment of the Protection and Compensation Fund. Amended by: XVII. 2002.260; XII. 2006.108.	49. There shall be established a fund, with such legal personality or otherwise, as may be prescribed, to be known and in this Act referred to as the "Protection and Compensation Fund" – (a) for the payment of any claims in respect of risks and of commitments as may be prescribed against an insurance undertaking carrying on business of insurance in Malta, remaining unpaid by reason of the insolvency of such undertaking, subject to such limitations, restrictions and exclusions as may be prescribed; and (b) for the payment of compensation to victims of road traffic accidents as may be prescribed subject to such limitations and restrictions as may be prescribed.
--	---

Contributions to the Fund. Amended by: XII. 2006.109.	50. (1) The Fund shall consist of all contributions made to it under this Act and any regulations made thereunder, and of all other assets and revenues pertaining to it. (2) All insurance undertakings, as prescribed by the regulations which carry on business of insurance in Malta shall contribute to the Fund in such amounts and to such limitations as shall be prescribed and different amounts and limitations may be prescribed with respect to different kinds of business of insurance or different classes or part classes thereof, or different kinds of authorised insurance undertakings, or in view of other different circumstances.
---	--

Management of the Fund.	51. The Protection and Compensation Fund shall be managed and otherwise dealt with in accordance with regulations made for the purposes of this Act. Provided that such regulations shall ensure that payments made into the Fund by undertakings authorised to carry on long term business shall be utilised for compensation with respect to long term business and shall be treated separately and utilised exclusively for compensation with respect to long term business, and payments made into the Fund by undertakings authorised to carry on general business shall also be treated separately and shall be utilised exclusively for compensation with respect to general business:
-------------------------	--

	Provided further that no payment shall be made from the Fund to any person who is a shareholder in the insolvent undertaking and holds twenty per centum or more of the issued shares of such undertaking.

PART XII GENERAL PROVISIONS

Co-operation in supervisory duties and sharing of information. Substituted by: XVII. 2002. 263.	55. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of article 59, the competent authority shall co-operate and exchange information: (a) with European regulatory authorities, and the European Commission for the purpose of facilitating the supervision of insurance and reinsurance within the European Union and the application of the Solvency II Directive; (b) with overseas regulatory authorities for the purposes of the exercise of one or more of their regulatory functions; (c) with authorities or bodies, or persons listed in subarticle (2).

(2) The competent authority shall co-operate and exchange information with:

- (a) authorities responsible for the supervision of credit institutions and other financial organisations and the authorities responsible for the supervision of financial markets;
- (b) bodies involved in the liquidation and insolvency of insurance or reinsurance undertakings and in other similar procedures;
- (c) the authorities responsible for overseeing the bodies involved in the liquidation and insolvency of insurance undertakings, reinsurance undertakings and other similar procedures;
- (d) persons responsible for carrying out statutory audits of the accounts of insurance undertakings, reinsurance undertakings and other financial institutions;
- (e) bodies which administer compulsory winding-up proceedings or guarantee funds, where that information is necessary for the performance of their duties;
- (f) the authorities or bodies responsible for the detection and investigation of breaches of company law;
- (g) the authorities responsible for overseeing the persons charged with carrying out statutory audits of the accounts of insurance undertakings, reinsurance undertakings, credit institutions, investment firms and other financial institutions;
- (h) independent actuaries appointed by insurance or reinsurance undertakings carrying out actuarial tasks in relation to those undertakings and the bodies responsible for overseeing such actuaries.

(3) For the purposes of the exchanges of information referred to in paragraphs (c), (g) and (h) of sub article (2), the following conditions shall be met by the recipient of such information:

	(a) the information required must be for the purpose of carrying out the overseeing or supervision of the functions or activities of such authorities, bodies or persons; (b) the information received by such authorities, bodies or persons shall be subject to the duty of professional secrecy; (c) where the information in the possession of the competent authority originates from a European regulatory authority or an overseas regulatory authority, it shall not be disclosed without the express consent of the European regulatory authority or the overseas regulatory authority from which it originates and, where appropriate, solely for the purposes for which that authority gave its consent; (4) For the purposes of exchanges of information referred to in paragraph (f) of sub article (2), the competent authority shall ensure that the following conditions shall be met by the recipient of such information: (a) the information exchanged shall be intended for the purpose of the detection and investigation of breaches of company law; (b) the information received shall be subject to the duty of professional secrecy; (c) where the information in the possession of the competent authority originates from a European regulatory authority or an overseas regulatory authority, it shall not be disclosed without the express agreement of the European regulatory authority or the overseas regulatory authority from which it originates and, where appropriate, solely for the purposes for which the authority gave its agreement; (d) such recipient shall provide the name and responsibilities of the persons to whom such information shall be sent: Provided that where the authorities or bodies perform their tasks of detection or investigation with the assistance of persons appointed for that purpose, in view of their specific competence, and such persons are not employed with such bodies or persons, such information may only be exchanged with such persons if the conditions set out in this subarticle are met.

(5) The competent authority shall communicate to the Commission and to the other Member States or EEA States the names of the authorities, persons or bodies which may receive information in terms of this article.

(6) (a) Without prejudice to the provisions of this article and article 59 of the Act, the competent authority may transmit information intended for the performance of their tasks to the following:

(i) the Central Bank of Malta, the central banks of the European system of central banks, (including the European Central Bank) and other bodies with a similar function in their capacity as monetary authorities where this information is relevant to their respective statutory tasks, including the conduct of monetary policy and related liquidity provision, oversight of payments, clearing and securities settlement systems and safeguarding the stability of the financial system;

(ii) where appropriate, other national public authorities responsible for overseeing payment systems; and

(iii) the European Systemic Risk Board, where that information is relevant to carrying out its tasks.

(b) in an emergency situation, including a situation as defined in Article 18 of Regulation (EU) No 1094/2010, the competent authority shall communicate, without delay, information to the central banks of the European System of Central Banks (including the European Central Bank) where that information is relevant to their statutory tasks, including the conduct of monetary policy and related liquidity provision, oversight of payments, clearing and securities settlement systems and safeguarding the stability of the financial system, and to the European Systemic Risk Board, where such information is relevant to its tasks.

(c) such authorities or bodies may also communicate to the competent authority such information as they may need for the purposes of subarticle (4) of article 59.

(7) Without prejudice to article 59, the competent authority may exchange information with other departments of Member States central government administrations responsible for legislation on the supervision of credit institutions, financial institutions, investment services and insurance and reinsurance undertakings and to inspectors acting on behalf of those departments provided that :

(a) such disclosures may be made only where necessary for reasons of prudential control;

(b) persons having access to such information shall be subject to professional secrecy.

(8) Without prejudice to the forgoing provision of this article, the competent authority may exercise the following powers at the request of or for the purposes of assisting a European regulatory authority or an overseas regulatory authority :

(a) the power to impose, revoke or vary conditions on the grant of an authorisation pursuant to the provisions of article 7;

(b) the power to suspend or revoke an authorisation under article 26;

(c) the power to take any action under article 28, in lieu of or in addition to any suspension or revocation of an authorisation;

(d) the power to require information and documentation under article 29;

(e) the power to appoint inspectors under article 30;

(f) the power of entry to obtain information and documentation under article 31; and

(g) the power to communicate to the European regulatory authority information in its possession, whether such information is the result of any of the above powers or otherwise;

(h) the power to prohibit the free disposal of the undertaking's assets located in Malta in the circumstances referred to in Articles 137 to 139 and Article 144(2) of the Solvency II Directive; the undertaking's home Member State shall designate the assets to be covered by such measures.

(9) There shall be meetings between an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking, its approved auditors, and, in the case of an undertaking authorised to carry on long term

	business, its approved actuary and the competent authority on a bilateral or a multilateral basis as circumstances may warrant. Such meetings may be called by any of the parties, and shall in each case be chaired by the competent authority.
Cooperation with EIOPA.	55A. (1) The competent authority shall cooperate with EIOPA for the purposes of the Solvency II Directive in accordance with Regulation (EU) No 1094/2010. (2) The competent authority shall provide EIOPA with all information necessary to carry out its duties in accordance with Regulation (EU) No 1094/2010.
Co-operation with third countries.	55B. (1) The competent authority may enter into co-operation agreements with overseas regulatory authorities or with such authorities or bodies as defined in subarticle (2) of article 55 of the Act, in countries that are not Member States or EEA States only if the information disclosed is subject to the guarantees of professional secrecy at least equivalent to those required under articles 55 and 59. Such exchange of information must be intended for the performance of the supervisory task of such overseas regulatory authorities, authorities or bodies. (2) Where the information to be disclosed by the competent authority to the authorities or bodies referred to in subarticle (1) had originated from a European regulatory authority, it may only be disclosed to an overseas regulatory authority with the express agreement of such European regulatory authority which had transmitted it and, where appropriate, solely for the purposes for which that authority had given its agreement.
Communication by auditors, etc., with the competent authority.	56. (1) No duty (including the duty of professional secrecy) to which – (a) an auditor or an approved actuary of an undertaking; or (b) a person appointed to make a report under article 30(1), may be subject, shall be regarded as contravened by reason of his communicating in good faith to the competent authority, whether or not in response to a request made by it, any

	information or opinion on a matter to which this article applies and which is relevant to any function of the competent authority under this Act. (2) In relation to an auditor or an actuary of an authorised undertaking, this article applies to any matter falling within article 24. (3) In relation to a person appointed to make a report under article 30(1), this article applies to any matter of which he becomes aware in his capacity as the person making the report which relates to the business or affairs of the undertaking in relation to which his report is made. (4) If it appears to the competent authority that any accountants or class of accountants who are persons to whom subarticle (1) applies are not subject to satisfactory rules made or guidelines issued by a professional body specifying circumstances in which matters are to be communicated to the competent authority as mentioned in that subarticle, the competent authority may, after consultation with such bodies as appear to the competent authority to represent the interests of accountants and authorised undertakings, make rules for the purposes of this article, applying to those accountants and specifying such circumstances; and it shall be the duty of an accountant to whom the rules apply to communicate a matter to the competent authority in the circumstances specified by the rules.

Appeals. Amended by: XIII. 2004.118; XVII. 2009.36.	58. (1) Subject to the provisions of this article, an appeal shall lie to the Financial Services Tribunal with respect to— (a) any failure to inform an applicant within the term provided in subarticle (9) or (10) of article 7; (b) any refusal to issue an authorisation under articles 7 or 21; (c) any condition imposed in an authorisation issued or held under articles 7 or 21; (d) any suspension or revocation of an authorisation under article 26, or under any regulation made under this Act; (e) any one or more measures taken under article 28; (f) any directive given under article 31A; (g) any refusal of an application for transfer of general business under article 33; (h) any notice issued or any order made under articles 38, 38A and 38C;

	(i) any administrative penalty imposed in respect of infringements as may be prescribed under article 67.. (2) The provisions of article 21 of the Malta Financial Services Authority Act shall apply mutatis mutandis to appeals that may be brought before the Tribunal under this article.
Confidentiality. Amended by: XVII. 2002.265; XII. 2006.111; XX. 2007.135.	59. (1) Information obtained by the competent authority or by its officers, employees or agents, including former officers, employees or agents, as well as by inspectors, auditors and experts acting on behalf of the competent authority for the purposes of, or pursuant to, any of the provisions of this Act, or of any regulations made thereunder, or of any Insurance Rules, or in the discharge of any functions under any of the said provisions, shall be treated as confidential and protected by the duty of professional secrecy. (2) Without prejudice to cases covered by criminal law, the persons referred to in subregulation (1) shall not disclose information obtained from an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking unless such disclosure of information be done in summary or aggregate form, so as not to enable the identity of the such undertaking, to whom such information relates, to be ascertained: Provided that, such persons may disclose confidential information in civil or commercial proceedings where an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking has been declared insolvent or is being compulsorily wound up, as long as such information does not concern third parties involved in attempts to rescue that undertaking. (3) Nothing in this Act shall authorise the competent authority to enquire or cause an enquiry to be made in an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking into the affairs of any individual policyholder of the authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking except for the purpose of ensuring compliance with any of the provisions of this or of any other Act. (4) Where the competent authority receives confidential information from a European regulatory authority under this article and article 55 it may only use such confidential information in the course of its duties and for the following purposes: (a) to check that the conditions governing the carrying

	on of business of insurance or reinsurance are met and to facilitate the monitoring of the carrying on of such business especially with regard to the monitoring of the technical provisions, the Solvency Capital Requirement, the Minimum Capital Requirement and the system of governance; (b) to impose penalties or adopt other administrative measures and to consider representations received in their regard; (c) in appeals against decisions of the competent authority under article 58; (d) in judicial proceedings under the Solvency II Directive. (5) When an officer or an employee of an authorised insurance or reinsurance undertaking has reason to believe that a transaction or a proposed transaction could involve money laundering or the funding of terrorism, he shall act in compliance with the reporting and other obligations set out in the regulations made under article 12 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act and any procedures and guidance issued thereunder, and such disclosure shall not constitute a breach of confidentiality. (6) In this article, any reference to agents has the meaning assigned to it in subarticle (10) of article 30 of this Act.
Communication of confidential information. Amended by: XX. 2007.136. Cap. 377. Cap. 9.	60. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Professional Secrecy Act, article 257 of the Criminal Code shall not affect or prevent the exchange of information about policies, policyholders, potential policyholders, insureds, claimants or other related parties – (a) amongst insurance undertakings authorised to carry on the business of insurance ("insurers"); (b) amongst companies or persons registered or enrolled under the Insurance Intermediaries Act ("intermediaries"); (c) between insurers and intermediaries; (d) between insurers, or intermediaries, or insurers and intermediaries, and the Commissioner of Police, provided that such exchange is compatible with or reasonably required for the purpose of preventing, detecting or suppressing insurance fraud.

	(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Data Protection Act, the collection, use, storage and transmission of information for the purposes of the exchanging of personal data referred to in subarticle (1) of this article is deemed to be a necessary measure for the prevention, detection or suppression of insurance fraud. constituted in a country outside Malta, which is similar in nature to a company as known under the laws of Malta and which would, if it were such a company, qualify to be authorised under this Act as a company carrying on business of insurance, to be continued as a company registered under the Companies Act and an undertaking carrying on business of insurance under this Act; and

(b) a company carrying on business of insurance authorised under this Act to be continued as a body corporate registered, incorporated or constituted under the laws of a country outside Malta, in either case by complying with the regulations; and the Companies Act shall, in respect of such bodies corporate or companies carrying on business of insurance, have effect accordingly.

(2) Regulations under this article may provide that continuance as aforesaid may only take place if –

(a) it is within the power of such body or company so to continue;

(b) the continuance is, in either case, approved in such manner as may be prescribed, and the regulations may further provide that the continuance of a company carrying on business of insurance as a body corporate under a foreign jurisdiction shall not take place unless –

(i) such continuance (or similar process, including conversion) is permitted by the law of such foreign jurisdiction and is in accordance with such provisions thereof as may bring about such continuance (or similar process); and

(ii) such continuance (or similar process) will operate the continuation of the corporate existence of the company as, or its conversion into, a body corporate which will continue to retain or will succeed to all assets, rights and liabilities of the company.

(3) (a) The provisions of the foregoing subarticles shall also apply, mutatis mutandis to companies enrolled to act as insurance managers and companies enrolled to carry on the business of insurance broking under the Insurance Intermediaries Act, and accordingly references in this article to "authorised" and to "business of insurance" shall be deemed to include

	references to "enrolled" and "activities of companies enrolled as insurance managers and business of insurance broking", respectively. (b) In this subarticle, reference to the "company" shall include reference to a partnership en commandite or to a similar or equivalent body corporate the capital of which is divided into shares. (4) The provisions of this article and of any regulations made thereunder shall prevail over anything to the contrary contained in the Companies Act, or regulations made thereunder, with respect to continuance of companies. contravening or failing to comply with any provision of any regulation made as aforesaid shall become liable, being penalties not exceeding one hundred and fifty thousand (150,000) euro, in respect of any offence and in respect of a continuing offence of a further penalty not exceeding two hundred and thirty (230) euro for each day during which the offence continues.

(2) Except where any regulation made under this Act provides for a lesser penalty, any person acting in contravention of or failing to comply with or otherwise observe any such regulation shall be liable to a penalty of not less than two hundred and thirty (230) euro and not exceeding one hundred and fifty thousand (150,000) euro, in respect of each offence and in the case of a continuing offence to a further penalty not exceeding two hundred and thirty (230) euro for each day during which the offence continues.

(3) The Minister may, after consultation with the competent authority, make regulations providing for the determination and regulation of any matter which relates to finite reinsurance contracts or finite reinsurance activities, including the monitoring, management or control and reporting of risks arising from such contracts or activities.

(4) The Minister may, after consultation with the competent authority, make regulations providing for the establishment of special purpose vehicles within the meaning of the Solvency II Directive, including the conditions under which the activities of such vehicles shall be carried on. Any such regulations may provide for exemptions from any provisions of this Act or of any other law, subject to such modifications, variations and conditions as may be specified therein, and in particular may provide that in so far as any of the provisions of the regulations are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or of any other law, the provisions of the regulations shall prevail, and the provisions of this Act or of any other law shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, not apply.

(5) The Minister may, after consulting the competent authority, make regulations exempting any person or operation, or any class or classes or part classes of business of insurance, from all or any of the provisions of this Act or of any regulations made thereunder, subject to such conditions or requirements including the requirement of other forms of authorisation and notification procedures as may be prescribed.

(6) The Minister may, after consultation with the competent authority, make regulations to better implement the provisions of this Act, including the transposition of any

	requirement or provision as may arise under a Directive, Regulation or Decision of the European Union or any other similar measure relevant for the purposes of this Act. Any such regulations made to transpose any requirement or provision as may arise under a Directive, Regulation or Decision of the European Union or any other similar measure may provide for exemptions from any provisions of this Act or of any other law, subject to such modifications, variations and conditions as may be specified therein, and in particular may provide that in so far as any of the provisions of the regulations are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or of any other law, the provisions of the regulations shall prevail, and the provisions of this Act or of any other law shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, not apply. (7) The Minister may, after consultation with the competent authority, make regulations determining the class or classes of long term business and the class or classes or part classes of general business that may be effected and carried out under this Act. (8) Regulations made under this Act may make such exemptions, conditions or modifications as may be specified therein in respect of different cases, circumstances or purposes and may give the competent authority such power of adaptation of the regulations as may be specified therein. (9) The exercise of any of the powers assigned under this article shall be subject to any obligations or restrictions arising from Malta's international commitments. (10) Regulations made under this Act and any amendment or revocation of such regulations, may be published in the English language only.

(4) Every licence issued or renewed or other action whatever taken or commenced under the Act in so far as it applies to insurance brokers and insurance salesmen, shall continue in force and to be valid as if such licence were a certificate of enrolment issued or as if such other action were action taken or commenced under the Insurance Intermediaries Act.

(5) For the purposes of this article "licence" includes an authority, permit, approval and appointment.

(6) Without prejudice to the provisions of article 12 of the Interpretation Act, all regulations, orders and other instruments which were kept in force by the Act and all regulations, orders and other instruments made under the Act, and any agreement and arrangement which were made in virtue of the Act, any regulation, order or other instrument shall, if and as in force immediately before the commencement of this article, be deemed to have been made under or in virtue of this Act and shall continue in force and may be amended, altered, repealed or otherwise dealt with accordingly.

(7) All references in any enactment and in any instrument or other document to the Act, or any provision thereof, shall, in so far as applicable, be read and construed as a reference to this Act or to the corresponding provision thereof.

(8) Any reference in any licence, notice, decision or other act made or taken by the competent authority, to an insurance directive issued by the competent authority, and any reference in any law or regulation to an insurance directive shall be deemed to be a reference to Insurance Rules.

(9) The assets and the liabilities of the Security Fund established by the Act shall upon the coming into force of this Act be transferred to the Protection and Compensation Fund established by article 49 without the need of any formality other than this Act.
