X. 2015.4;

XXI. 2015.20.

3. (1) The Minister, acting on the advice of the competent authority, may make, amend or revoke regulations to give effect to the provisions of this Act and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing may, by such regulations, in particular, do any of the following:

- (a) transpose, implement and, or give effect to the requirements of the BRRD, the CRD and the CRR;
- (b) transpose Directive 2001/24/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of the European Union of 4 April 2001 on re-organisation and winding-up of credit institutions with respect to credit institutions established in Malta and of branches of credit institutions established outside Malta, and different provisions may be made for different cases or classes of cases, and account shall be taken of Malta's international commitments in this regard. Such regulations may provide for the implementation of detailed re-organisation measures and procedures, including the following matters: the publication and submission of information in such language or languages and in such newspapers or other publications as may be prescribed; the submission of information to creditors, and the manner and procedure thereof; the notification to creditors and the procedure for the submission of claims or representations; measures for the protection of the rights of creditors and other third parties, including netting arrangements; consultation between the competent authority and any other regulatory, administrative or judicial authorities in Malta and outside Malta with competence over the winding-up or re-organisation of credit institutions or of branches thereof; the publication of decisions relating to such winding-up or re-organisation procedures; the establishment of Banking Rules governing the applicability of the proper or applicable law and other issues of conflict of laws;
- (c) transpose, implement and, or give effect to the provisions and requirements of Directives, Regulations and any other legislative measures of the European Union requiring transposition and, or implementation, as they may be amended from time to time, including any implementing measures that have been or may be issued thereunder and relating to licence holders and others as may be specified therein;

any such regulations strictly related to transposition or implementation as aforesaid may contain provisions which are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or of any other law, and for this purpose may provide that any provision in this Act or in any other law shall not apply to matters falling under the regulations, and in case of such inconsistency, such provisions in any such regulations shall prevail;

- (d) adopt, where necessary, any Communications issued by the European Commission;
- (e) prescribe that a breach of any regulations made under this Act may amount to a criminal offence as may be specified, and such regulations may impose punishments in respect of any breach, not exceeding a fine (multa) of two million euro (€2,000,000) or imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or both such fine and imprisonment, and a higher fine (multa) may be imposed where deemed necessary or appropriate for any breach or failure of compliance with any EU Directive or EU Regulation or with any regulations made under this article to transpose or to give effect to any EU Directive or EU Regulation:-
- (f) transpose, implement and, or give effect to the requirements of the PAD, and in so doing may also establish or maintain measures alternative to those referred to in Article 10(2) to (6) of the PAD, provided that:
 - (i) it is clearly in the interest of the consumer;
 - (ii) there is no additional burden for the consumer; and
 - (iii) the switching as defined in Article 2(18) of the PAD is completed within, as a maximum, the same overall time-frame as that indicated in Article 10(2) to (6) of the PAD;
- (g) without prejudice to Article 16 of the PAD, set up a specific mechanism to ensure that consumers who do not have a payment account as defined in Article 2(3) of the PAD in their territory and who have been denied access to such a payment account for which a fee is charged by credit institutions, will have effective access to a payment account with basic features in terms of the PAD, free of charge.

(2) (a) The Minister may, after consultation with the competent authority and the Central Bank, if he deems it expedient in the public interest so to do, by order published in the Gazette declare any day or days to be a bank holiday or holidays.

(b) On any day declared to be a bank holiday under this article, whether such day is also a public holiday or not, no bank shall do any business with the public except to the extent allowed by the order.

Powers and duties of the competent authority.

Amended by:

XVII. 2002.159;

XX. 2007.85, 87;

II. 2011.4;

X. 2015.5.

4. (1) It shall be the duty of the competent authority to carry out the functions and duties prescribed by this Act, any regulations made or Banking Rules issued thereunder and the CRR and to ensure that credit institutions carrying out their activities in Malta comply with this Act, any regulations, directives and Banking Rules made or issued thereunder, the CRR and with the conditions of their licences. In pursuance of that duty the competent authority shall at all times afford such co-operation to the Central Bank as the Central Bank may require in the discharge of its duties.

S.L. 204.06.

(2) The competent authority shall be the authority appointed for the purposes of Article 131(1) of the CRD and shall act jointly with the designated authority as appointed in terms of the Central Bank of Malta Act \(Appointment of Designate Authority to implement Macro-Prudential Instruments\) Regulations.

(3) The competent authority shall notify the European Commission and the EBA of its functions and duties.

(4) The competent authority shall, in the exercise of its general duties, duly consider the potential impact of its decisions on the stability of the financial system in the other Member States concerned and, in particular, in emergency situations, based on the information available at the relevant time.

(5) The competent authority shall monitor the activities of credit institutions, and where applicable, of financial holding companies and mixed financial holding companies, so as to assess compliance with the requirements of the CRR and this Act and any regulations made or Banking Rules issued thereunder.

(6) The competent authority may make, amend or revoke Banking Rules and Conduct of Business Rules as may be required for carrying into effect any of the provisions of this Act and any regulations made thereunder, and to transpose, implement and give effect to the provisions and requirements of Directives, Regulations and any other legislative matters of the European Union requiring transposition or implementation.

(7) The competent authority may ~~make issue~~, amend or revoke Banking Rules as may be required for the purpose of implementing any guidelines, recommendations, ~~and individual decisions, opinions or any other instrument~~ issued by the EBA ~~under Articles 16, 17(3) and 18(3) of Regulation (EU) No. 1093/2010 as may be required~~.

(8) The competent authority may ~~make issue~~, amend or revoke Banking Rules as may be required for the purpose of implementing any opinions, ~~and~~ recommendations, ~~guidelines, decisions or any other instrument~~ issued by the ECB ~~under Articles 127(4) and 132(1) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union as may be required~~.

(9) Banking Rules and Conduct of Business Rules shall be binding on licence holders and others as may be specified therein.

(10) Banking Rules and Conduct of Business Rules and any amendment or revocation thereof shall be officially communicated to credit institutions and the competent authority shall make copies thereof available to the public.

X. 2015.8.

5. (1) No business of banking shall be transacted in or from Malta except by a company which is in possession of a licence granted under this Act by the competent authority.

(2) No credit institution licensed or holding an equivalent authorisation outside Malta may open a branch, agency or representative office or set up any subsidiary in Malta unless it is in possession of a licence granted under this Act by the competent authority:

Provided that a credit institution licensed or holding an equivalent authorisation in a Member State or EEA state shall be entitled to exercise its rights under European Union Law.

(3) In the event of reasonable doubt as to whether the business of banking or of accepting deposits is or is not being transacted in or from Malta by any person, the matter shall be conclusively determined by the competent authority.

(4) The granting of a licence shall be subject to an annual fee as the competent authority may determine from time to time.

(5) The Minister may, after consulting the competent authority, establish or recognise other forms of authorisation and notification procedures, subject to such conditions, additions, adaptations, and modifications and exemptions as may be prescribed; and different provisions may be made for different cases or classes of cases, under such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, and account shall be taken of Malta's international commitments.

6. (1) Any company desirous of commencing the business of banking in Malta shall, before commencing any such business, apply in writing to the competent authority for a licence under this Act.

(2) All applications for a licence shall be in such form and accompanied by such information, including a programme of operations setting out the types of business envisaged and the structural organisation of the credit institution, and shall conform with such requirements as may be prescribed from time to time by a Banking Rule. Such requirements shall be notified to the EBA:

Provided that before authorisation is granted or refused, an application may only be withdrawn by written notice to the competent authority.

(3) The competent authority shall have the power to require any person to provide such information as it shall deem necessary for the purposes of determining an application for a licence or for the purposes of determining whether to restrict or withdraw a licence.

(4) The competent authority shall not consider the economic needs of the market as a criterion when examining an application for a licence.

Issuing of a licence.

7. (1) No company shall be granted a licence unless -

- (a) its initial capital amounts to not less than five million euro (€5,000,000) or an equivalent amount in another currency as may be specified in a Banking Rule:

Provided that the competent authority may, by a provision contained in a Banking Rule or as required through a condition in a credit institution's licence, increase the amount laid down in this paragraph:

Provided further that the initial capital shall comprise only one or more of the items referred to in Article 26(1)(a) to (e) of the CRR;

- (b) there are at least two individuals who effectively direct the business of the company;
- (c) the competent authority is notified of the identities of the shareholders or members whether direct or indirect, that have qualifying holdings and of the amounts of those holdings or, where there are no qualifying holdings, of the twenty largest shareholders or members:

Provided that in determining whether the criteria for a qualifying holding are fulfilled, the voting rights referred to in Articles 9 and 10 of Directive 2004/109/E and the conditions regarding aggregation thereof set out in Article 12(4) and (5) of that Directive, shall be taken into account:

Provided further that voting rights or shares which institutions hold as a result of providing the underwriting of financial instruments or placing of financial instruments on a firm commitment basis included under point (6) of Section A of Annex I to Directive 2004/39/EC shall not be taken into account, provided that those rights are not exercised or otherwise used to intervene in the management of the issuer and are disposed of within one year of acquisition;

- (d) the competent authority is satisfied that the shareholders or members mentioned in paragraph (c), controllers and all individuals who will effectively direct the business of the credit institution are suitable persons to ensure its sound and prudent management. The competent authority shall be satisfied with the suitability of the individuals who will effectively direct the business if the requirements referred to in article 14(2) are met. The competent authority shall be satisfied of the suitability of the shareholders or members mentioned in paragraph (c), in particular, where the criteria set out in article 13A(9) are met. Article 13A(8) and (10) and article 13B shall apply;
- (e) the competent authority is satisfied that, where there are close links between the company and another person or persons, such links do not through any law, regulation, administrative provision or in any other manner prevent it from exercising effective supervision of the company, once in possession of a licence, under the provisions of this Act and any regulations made or Banking Rules issued thereunder:

Provided that the competent authority shall not grant authorisation where the laws, regulations or administrative provisions of a third country governing one or more persons with which the credit institution has close links, or difficulties involved in the enforcement of those laws, regulations and administrative provisions, prevent the effective exercise of its supervisory functions:

Provided further that in respect of this paragraph (e), the credit institution shall inform the competent authority forthwith of any change in circumstances concerning the application of this said paragraph (e) and shall further provide the competent authority with the information necessary to monitor compliance with the conditions referred to in this paragraph (e) on a continuous basis.

(2) The competent authority shall determine each application for a licence within six months of receipt of the application or, if the application does not comply with article 6(2) or additional information is required, within six months of compliance with the said sub-article or the furnishing of the information as the case may be, whichever be the later. In any event an application shall be determined within twelve months of its receipt.

(3) The competent authority shall determine an application by doing any of the following:

- (a) granting a licence without conditions;
- (b) granting a licence subject to such conditions as it may deem appropriate;
- (c) refusing to grant a licence:

and if it refuses an application it shall inform the applicant, in writing, of the reasons for the refusal.

(4) In granting a licence the competent authority may subject it to such conditions as it may deem appropriate, and having granted a licence it may, from time to time, vary or revoke any condition so imposed or impose new conditions.

(5) Where the competent authority for any reason fails to determine an application for a licence within the time prescribed under sub-article (2), such fact shall be deemed to constitute a refusal to grant a licence and shall be subject to a right of appeal in accordance with article 10.

(6) A credit institution licensed under this Act shall provide the competent authority with particulars of any changes in the information provided under this Act as soon as such credit institution becomes aware of such change.

(7) A credit institution licensed in terms of the Act shall have its head office and its registered office in Malta.

(8) The competent authority shall notify the EBA of every licence issued to a credit institution in terms of the Act and any regulations or Banking Rules made thereunder.

Prior consultation with overseas regulatory authorities.

*Added by:
X. 2015.11.*

7B. (1) The competent authority shall, before issuing a licence to a credit institution, consult the overseas regulatory authorities of another Member State where the credit institution is -

- (a) a subsidiary of a credit institution authorised in that other Member State;
- (b) a subsidiary of the parent undertaking of a credit institution authorised in that other Member State;
- (c) controlled by the same persons as those who control a credit institution authorised in that other Member State.

(2) The competent authority shall, before issuing a licence to a credit institution, consult the overseas regulatory authority that is responsible for the supervision of insurance undertakings or investment firms in the Member State concerned where the credit institution is -

- (a) a subsidiary of an insurance undertaking or investment firm authorised in the European Union;
- (b) a subsidiary of the parent undertaking of an insurance undertaking or investment firm authorised in the European Union;
- (c) controlled by the same persons as those who control an insurance undertaking or investment firm authorised in the European Union.

(3) The competent authority shall consult with the relevant overseas regulatory authorities referred to in sub-articles (1) and (2) when assessing the suitability of the shareholders and the reputation and experience of the directors in terms of article 7(1)(d) involved in the management of another entity of the same group.

(4) The competent authority shall exchange any information regarding the suitability of shareholders and the reputation and experience of directors which is of relevance for the issuing of a licence and for the ongoing assessment of compliance with the relevant overseas regulatory authorities referred to in sub-articles (1) and (2).

Representative offices of non-Maltese banks.

*Amended by:
XVII. 2002.164;
XX. 2007.85, 91.*

8. (1) A company licensed or holding an equivalent authorisation in another country outside Malta which carries on the business of banking shall not establish a representative office in Malta unless it has given not less than two months' notice to the competent authority that it proposes to establish such an office. Such notice shall -

- (a) specify the name it is proposed to use in relation to the activities of the representative office and the address of such office;

- (b) be accompanied by a certified copy of the authorisation of the company to conduct the business of banking in a country other than Malta.
- (2) A company mentioned in sub-article (1) having a representative office in Malta shall likewise notify the competent authority -
 - (a) at least two months in advance of any proposed change in name of the representative office;
 - (b) of any change in its licence to conduct the business of banking in a country other than Malta, no more than two months after such change.
- (3) The competent authority may, at any time, serve on a representative office in Malta a notice objecting to the name or the proposed name of such office.
- (4) The competent authority shall not give a notice pursuant to sub-article (3) unless it considers that the name or proposed name is misleading to the public or otherwise undesirable, and upon receipt of such notice, the representative office shall not use the name to which the competent authority has objected in relation to activities conducted in Malta.
- (5) The competent authority may, by notice in writing, require any company having a representative office in Malta or which has given notice pursuant to sub-article (1) to provide the competent authority with such information or documents as the competent authority may reasonably require, and the said company shall comply with such notice in the period as is reasonably specified by the notice.
- (6) A representative office in Malta shall supply the competent authority with a copy of any document which it is required to provide to the Registrar of Companies no later than the time by which such document must be provided to the said Registrar.
- (7) The competent authority may by a Banking Rule provide that the provisions of articles 20 to 24 shall apply to representative offices in Malta in the same manner as they apply to credit institutions subject to such variations and conditions as may be established in the Banking Rule.
- (8) The competent authority may by Banking Rule impose on companies which have established or which propose to establish representative offices in Malta such requirements as the competent authority considers appropriate in connection with those offices and the activities conducted from them and may impose on such companies such annual fee as may be determined from time to time.
- (9) The competent authority may, within the two months referred to in sub-article (1), order a company referred to in the said sub-article (1) not to establish a representative office in Malta and at any time thereafter order the closure of any representative office so established.

Withdrawal and restriction of a licence.

9. (1) A licence shall automatically cease to have any effect if the holder -
- (a) renounces the licence; or
 - (b) is declared bankrupt or goes into liquidation or makes a composition with its creditors or is otherwise dissolved; or
 - (c) has ceased to operate as a result of a merger with another credit institution; or
 - (d) in the case of a credit institution licensed or holding an equivalent authorisation in a third country and which has been granted a licence under this Act to open a branch in Malta, has had its authorisation withdrawn by the overseas regulatory authority in the third country within which the credit institution has been authorised.
- (2) The competent authority may only restrict or withdraw the licence issued to a credit institution in any of the following cases where such a credit institution -
- (a) does not make use of the licence within twelve months, expressly renounces the licence or has ceased to engage in business for more than six months, if no provision was made for the licence to lapse in such cases;
 - (b) has obtained the licence through false statements or any other irregular means;
 - (c) no longer fulfils the conditions under which the licence was issued;

S.L. 371.16

- (d) no longer meets the prudential requirements set out in Parts Three, Four or Six of the CRR or imposed under regulations 9(1)(a) and 10(1) and (2) of the Banking Act \(Supervisory Review\) Regulations or can no longer be relied on to fulfil its obligations towards its creditors, and, in particular, no longer provides security for the assets entrusted to it by its depositors;

S.L. 371.05

- (e) commits one of the breaches referred to in regulation 7(1) of the Administrative Penalties, Measures and Investigatory Powers Regulations;
- (f) conceals from, or fails to notify to the competent authority of any document or information or change therein which it was its duty to reveal or notify under this Act or any regulations or Banking Rules issued thereunder;
- (g) fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Act or any regulations made or

Banking Rules issued thereunder or with the conditions under which the licence is issued;

- (h) has insufficient assets to cover its liabilities;
- (i) has suspended payment or is about to suspend payment.

(3) Restrictions imposed by the competent authority pursuant to sub-article (2) shall be such restrictions as the competent authority shall consider appropriate for the proper compliance by the credit institution with the provisions of this Act and any regulations or Banking Rules made thereunder and the conditions, if any, of its licence and for the protection of depositors and may include (without prejudice to the generality hereof) -

- (a) the removal of any officer of the credit institution or the replacement of any officer by such person as the competent authority may designate;
- (b) the requirement for any person who directly or indirectly possesses a qualifying shareholding in the credit institution to divest himself of all or part of that holding;
- (c) the requirement for the credit institution to take or refrain from any action;
- (d) the requirement that the credit institution be prohibited from undertaking any transaction or transactions or any class of business or be permitted to undertake any transaction or transactions or any class of business only upon such terms as the competent authority may prescribe.

(4) The competent authority shall have the power to vary or remove any restrictions imposed under this article.

(5) Where the competent authority intends to restrict or withdraw a licence or to vary any restriction, it shall serve written notice of its intention on the credit institution; such notice shall specify the grounds upon which the competent authority intends to take action and shall specify a period (being a period of not less than forty-eight hours and not longer than thirty days) in which the credit institution shall be entitled to make representations to the competent authority as to why such action should not be taken. Unless the competent authority decides that the matter is urgent, it shall not impose or vary any restriction or withdraw a licence before the expiry of such period.

(6) A licence granted for the establishment in Malta of a branch of a credit institution licensed or holding an equivalent authorisation in a third country may only be withdrawn after consultation with the overseas regulatory authorities of the country within which it has been authorised, unless the competent authority decides that the matter is urgent or that there are circumstances which make such prior consultation inappropriate.

(7) Upon the restriction or withdrawal of a licence of a credit institution licensed in Malta, the competent authority shall inform the overseas regulatory authorities of the countries in which the credit institution or its subsidiaries are carrying on the business of banking. The competent authority shall notify the EBA of every withdrawal of a licence together with the reasons for such a withdrawal.

(8) Where the competent authority is satisfied that the circumstances so warrant, it may at any time make public any action it has taken under this article.

XX. 2007.94;
II. 2011.13.

12. (1) Subject to sub-articles (2) and (3), save with the written permission of the competent authority, no person other than a credit institution with a current licence may use the word "bank" or any of its derivatives or other words as may indicate or purport to indicate the carrying on of the business of banking in any language in the description or title under which such person is carrying on business, or make any such use on any letter paper, in any notice or advertisement, or in any other similar manner.

(2) A credit institution licensed or holding an equivalent authorisation in another country outside Malta may use the name used in the country where it is licensed or holds an equivalent authorisation, save that, where there is a risk that the use of such a name may be misleading, such credit institution shall add such explanatory particulars to its name as the competent authority shall direct.

(3) Every credit institution shall use as part of its description or title the word "bank" or one or more of its derivatives.

13. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, any person or persons acting in concert (hereinafter referred to in this Act as the "proposed acquirer"), who have taken a decision either to -

- (a) acquire, directly or indirectly, a qualifying share-holding in a credit institution;
- (b) increase, directly or indirectly, an existing shareholding which is not a qualifying shareholding so as to cause it to become a qualifying shareholding in a credit institution; or
- (c) further increase, directly or indirectly, such qualifying shareholding in a credit institution as a result of which the proportion of the voting rights or of the capital held would reach or exceed twenty per centum, thirty per centum or fifty per centum or so that the credit institution would become its subsidiary,

(hereinafter referred to in this Act as the "proposed acquisition"), shall notify the competent authority in writing of any such decision, indicating the size of the intended shareholding and providing any relevant information as and in the manner that the competent authority may by a Banking Rule require, including the form in which such notification shall be made and the criteria adopted by the competent authority in determining whether such person is a suitable person.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, any person who -

- (a) acquires, directly or indirectly, at least five per centum but less than ten per centum of the share capital or of the voting rights in a credit institution; or

- (b) increases, directly or indirectly, an existing shareholding so that the proportion of the voting rights or of the capital held would amount to at least five per centum but less than ten per centum, shall inform the competent authority in writing, indicating the size of the shareholding and providing any relevant information as and in the manner that the competent authority may by a Banking Rule require. Such Banking Rule may provide, inter alia, general guidance as to when the shareholding would be deemed to result in significant influence.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, any person who has taken a decision either to -

- (a) dispose, directly or indirectly, of a qualifying shareholding in a credit institution;
- (b) reduce, directly or indirectly, a qualifying shareholding so as to cause it to cease to be a qualifying shareholding; or
- (c) reduce, directly or indirectly, a qualifying shareholding so that the proportion of the voting rights or of the capital held would fall below twenty per centum, thirty per centum or fifty per centum or so that the credit institution would cease to be its subsidiary, shall notify the competent authority in writing of any such decision indicating the size of the intended shareholding and providing any relevant information as and in the manner that the competent authority may by a Banking Rule require.

Cap. 345.

(4) Sub-articles (1), (2) and (3) shall apply irrespective of whether or not any of the relevant shares are shares listed on any regulated market within the meaning of the Financial Markets Act or on an equivalent market in a third country.

(5) Credit Institutions shall, on becoming aware of any acquisitions or disposals of holdings in their capital that cause holdings to exceed or fall below one of the thresholds referred to in this article, inform the competent authority of those acquisitions or disposals:

Provided that credit institutions admitted to trading on a regulated market shall, at least annually, notify the competent authority of the names of the shareholders and members possessing qualifying holdings and the sizes of such holdings as shown by the information received at the annual general meetings of shareholders and members or as a result of compliance with the regulations relating to companies admitted to trading on a regulated market or as requested by the competent authority.

(6) If any person takes or decides to take any action set out in sub-article (1) or (3) without notifying the competent authority or obtaining its approval in terms of article 13A, then, without prejudice to any other penalty which may be imposed under this Act, the competent authority shall have the power to make an order:

- (a) restraining such person or credit institution from taking, or continuing with, such action;
- (b) declaring such action to be void and of no effect;
- (c) requiring such person or credit institution to take such steps as may be necessary to restore the position existing immediately before the action was taken;
- (d) restraining such person or credit institution from exercising any rights which such action would, if lawful, have conferred upon them, including the right to receive any payment or to exercise any voting rights attaching to the shares acquired;
- (e) restraining such person or credit institution from taking any similar action or any other action within the categories set out in sub-articles (1) and (3).

(7) Without prejudice to any other provision of this Act, where the influence exercised by any person acquiring or proposing to acquire a qualifying shareholding is, or is likely, to operate to the detriment of the sound and prudent management of the credit institution, the competent authority may exercise any of its powers under this Act to put an end to such situation, including the power to issue directives as it may deem reasonable in the circumstances.

(8) The competent authority, may, by means of a Banking Rule issued under this Act indicate the circumstances when persons are to be regarded as "acting in concert".

Assessment procedure.

Added by:

XVII. 2009.18.

Amended by:

II. 2011.14;

X. 2015.17.

13A. (1) The competent authority shall, promptly and in any event within two working days following receipt of the notification required under article 13(1), as well as following the possible subsequent receipt of the information referred to in sub-article (4), acknowledge receipt thereof in writing to the proposed acquirer.

(2) The competent authority shall have a maximum of sixty working days as from the date of the written acknowledgement of receipt of the notification required under article 13(1) and all documents required by the competent authority to be attached to such notification (hereinafter referred to in this Act as the "assessment period") to carry out the assessment on the basis of such information as may be determined by a Banking Rule issued for this purpose.

(3) The competent authority shall inform the proposed acquirer of the date of the expiry of the assessment period at the time of acknowledging receipt.

(4) The competent authority may, during the assessment period, if necessary and no later than on the fiftieth working day of such period, request any further information that is necessary to complete the assessment. Such a request shall be made in writing and shall specify the additional information needed.

(5) During the period between the date of request for additional information by the competent authority and the receipt of a response thereto by the proposed acquirer, the assessment period shall be interrupted. The interruption period shall not exceed twenty working days. Any further requests by the competent authority for completion or clarification of the information shall be at its discretion but shall not result in an interruption of such period.

(6) The competent authority may extend the interruption period referred to in sub-article (5) up to thirty working days if the proposed acquirer is -

- (a) situated or regulated in a third country; or
- (b) is a person not subject to supervision under -
 - (i) the CRD ;
 - (ii) Directive 2009/65/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 July 2009 on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS) (recast), as amended from time to time;
 - (iii) Directive 2009/138/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 25 November 2009 on the taking-up and pursuit of the business of Insurance and Reinsurance (Solvency II) (recast), as amended from time to time; or
 - (iv) Directive 2004/39/EC.

(7) The competent authority shall, upon completion of the assessment referred to in sub-article (2) and not later than the date of the expiry of the assessment period, issue a notice:

- (a) granting unconditional approval to the proposed acquisition;
- (b) granting approval to the proposed acquisition subject to such conditions as the competent authority may deem appropriate; or
- (c) refusing the proposed acquisition.

(8) In making the assessment referred to in sub-article (2), the competent authority shall neither impose any prior conditions in respect of the level of shareholding that must be acquired nor examine the proposed acquisition in terms of the economic needs of the market.

(9) In assessing the notification provided for in article 13(1) and the information referred to in sub-articles (4) and (5) of this article, the competent authority shall, in order to ensure the sound and prudent management of the credit institution in which an acquisition is proposed, and having regard to the likely influence of the proposed acquirer on the credit institution, assess the suitability of the proposed acquirer and the financial soundness of the proposed acquisition in accordance with the following criteria -

- (a) the reputation of the proposed acquirer;
 - (b) the reputation, knowledge, skills and experience, as set out in article 14(2), of any member of the board of directors and any member of senior management who will direct the business of the credit institution as a result of the proposed acquisition;
 - (c) the financial soundness of the proposed acquirer, in particular in relation to the type of business pursued and envisaged in the credit institution in which the acquisition is proposed;
 - (d) whether the credit institution will be able to comply and continue to comply with the prudential requirements based on this Act and any regulations and Banking Rules issued thereunder, and the CRR, and where applicable, other European Union laws, in particular Directive 2002/87/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 December 2002 on the supplementary supervision of credit institutions, insurance undertakings and investment firms in a financial conglomerate and Directive 2009/110/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 September 2009 on the taking up, pursuit and prudential supervision of the business of electronic money institutions, as amended from time to time, including whether the group of which it will become a part has a structure that makes it possible to exercise effective supervision, effectively exchange information among the competent authority and the overseas regulatory authorities and determine the allocation of responsibilities among the competent authority and the overseas regulatory authorities;
 - (e) whether there are reasonable grounds to suspect that, in connection with the proposed acquisition, money laundering or terrorist financing within the meaning of Article 1 of Directive 2005/60/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 October 2005 on the prevention of the use of the financial system for the purpose of money laundering and terrorist financing is being or has been committed or attempted, or that the proposed acquisition could increase the risk thereof.
- (10) The competent authority may oppose the proposed acquisition only if there are reasonable grounds for doing so on the basis of the criteria set out in sub-article (9) or if the information provided by the proposed acquirer is incomplete.
- (11) If the competent authority, upon completion of the assessment, decides to oppose the proposed acquisition, it shall, within two working days, and not exceeding the assessment period, inform the proposed acquirer in writing specifying the reasons for such decision. The competent authority may, whether at the request of such proposed acquirer or not, issue a public statement indicating such reasons.
- (12) If the competent authority does not oppose the proposed acquisition in writing within the assessment period, such proposed acquisition shall be deemed to be approved.
- (13) Without prejudice to any other penalty which may be imposed under this Act, where a qualifying shareholding in a credit institution is acquired notwithstanding the refusal of the competent authority, the exercise of the corresponding voting rights shall be suspended and any of the votes cast in contravention of this sub-article shall be null and void.

(14) The competent authority may fix a maximum period for concluding the proposed acquisition and extend it where appropriate.

(15) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-articles (1) to (6), where two or more proposals to acquire or increase qualifying shareholdings in the same credit institution have been notified to the competent authority, the latter shall treat the proposed acquirers in a non-discriminatory manner.

Co-operation with overseas regulatory authorities in the case of acquisitions.

Added by:

XVII. 2009.18.

13B. (1) The competent authority shall work in full consultation with overseas regulatory authorities when carrying out the assessment referred to in article 13A(2) if the proposed acquirer is one of the following:

(a) a credit institution, assurance undertaking, insurance undertaking, reinsurance undertaking, investment firm or UCITS management company authorised in another Member State or EEA State or in a sector other than that in which the acquisition is proposed;

(b) the parent undertaking of a credit institution, assurance undertaking, insurance undertaking, reinsurance undertaking, investment firm or UCITS management company authorised in another Member State or EEA State or in a sector other than that in which the acquisition is proposed; or

(c) the person controlling a credit institution, assurance undertaking, insurance undertaking, reinsurance undertaking, investment firm or UCITS

management company authorised in another Member State or EEA State or in a sector other than that in which the acquisition is proposed.

(2) The competent authority shall, without undue delay, provide any information which is essential or relevant for the assessment referred to in article 13A(2) to the overseas regulatory authority requesting such information. Upon request, the competent authority shall communicate to the overseas regulatory authority all relevant information and shall communicate on its own initiative all essential information. A decision by the competent authority in terms of article 13A shall indicate any views or reservations expressed by the overseas regulatory authority responsible for the proposed acquirer.

Mergers, reconstructions, divisions and changes in share capital or voting rights.

Added by:

XVII. 2009.18.

Amended by:

X. 2015.18.

13C. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law and without prejudice to article 13(1) and (3), the consent of the competent authority given in writing shall be required before any credit institution may lawfully:

- (a) sell or dispose of its business or any significant part thereof;
- (b) merge with any other company, whether a credit institution or otherwise;
- (c) undergo any re-construction or division; or
- (d) increase or reduce its nominal or issued share capital or effect any material change in the voting rights:

Provided that this will be without prejudice to the provisions of the CRR on the conditions for reducing own funds.

(2) It shall be the duty of all directors and qualifying shareholders of a credit institution to notify the competent authority forthwith in writing upon becoming aware that such credit institution intends to take any of the actions set out in sub-article(1).

(3) Within three months of receipt of such notification or receipt of such information as the competent authority may lawfully require, whichever is the later, the competent authority shall issue a notice -

- (a) granting unconditional consent to the taking of the action;
- (b) granting consent to the taking of the action subject to such conditions as the competent authority may deem appropriate; or
- (c) refusing consent to the taking of the action, and if it refuses to grant consent it shall inform the person or the credit institution concerned in writing of the reason for its refusal.

(4) If any person or any credit institution takes or decides to take any action set out in sub-article (1) without obtaining the consent of the competent authority, then, without prejudice to any other penalty which may be imposed under this Act, the competent authority shall have the power to make an order:

- (a) restraining such person or credit institution from taking or continuing with such action;
- (b) declaring such action to be void and of no effect;
- (c) requiring such person or credit institution to take such steps as may be necessary to restore the position existing immediately before the action was taken;
- (d) restraining such person or credit institution from exercising any rights which such action would, if lawful, have conferred upon them, including the right to receive any payment or to exercise any voting rights attaching to the shares acquired;

- (e) restraining such person or credit institution from taking any similar action or any other action within the categories set out in sub-article (1).

Criteria for qualifying holdings.

Added by:

X. 2015.19.

13D. In determining whether the criteria for a qualifying shareholding are fulfilled, the voting rights referred to in Articles 9, 10 and 11 of Directive 2004/109/E and the conditions regarding aggregation thereof set out in Article 12(4) and (5) of that same Directive, shall be taken into account:

Provided that in determining whether the criteria for a qualifying shareholding are fulfilled, the competent authority shall not take into account voting rights or shares which credit institutions may hold as a result of providing the underwriting of financial instruments on a firm commitments basis in terms of point 6 of Section A of Annex 1 to Directive 2004/39/EC, provided that those rights are not exercised or otherwise used to intervene in the management of the issuer and are disposed of within one year of acquisition.

Control of a credit institution.

Amended by:

XVII. 2002.170;

XX. 2007.96;

XVII. 2009.19;

X. 2015.20.

14. (1) Any person who is a controller or director of a credit institution shall be a suitable person to exercise such control.

(2) Directors shall at all times be of sufficiently good repute and possess sufficient knowledge, skills and experience to perform their duties. The overall composition of the board of directors shall reflect an adequately broad range of experiences:

Provided that directors shall, in particular, fulfil the following requirements:

- (a) all directors shall commit sufficient time to perform their functions in the credit institution;
- (b) the number of directorships which may be held by a director at the same time shall take into account individual circumstances and the nature, scale and complexity of the credit institution's activities. A director of a credit institution that is significant in terms of its size, internal organisation and the nature, the scope and the complexity of its activities shall, from 1 July 2014, not hold more than one of the following combinations of directorships at the same time -
 - (i) one directorship having an executive role with two directorships having a non-executive role;
 - (ii) four directorships having a non-executive role;
- (c) for the purposes of paragraph (b), the following shall count as a single directorship -

- (i) directorships having an executive or non-executive role held within the same group;
- (ii) directorships having an executive or non-executive role held within -
 - (aa) credit institutions which are members of the same institutional protection scheme provided that the conditions set out in Article 113(7) of the CRR are fulfilled; or
 - (bb) undertakings (including non-financial entities) in which the credit institution holds a qualifying holding.

(3) The following directorships shall not be taken into consideration for the purposes of sub-article (2)(b):

- (a) directors who are directly or indirectly appointed to represent the interests of the Government of Malta; and
- (b) directors appointed in organisations which do not pursue predominantly commercial objectives, including directorships in non-profit-making or charitable organisations.

(4) The competent authority may authorise directors to hold one additional directorship having a non-executive role. The competent authority shall notify the EBA of such authorisations on a regular basis.

(5) The board of directors shall possess adequate collective knowledge, skills and experience to be able to understand the credit institution's activities, including the main risks.

(6) Each director shall act with honesty, integrity and independence of mind to effectively assess and challenge the decisions of the senior management where necessary and to effectively oversee and monitor management decision-making.

(7) The directors of a financial holding company or mixed financial holding company, being a parent to a credit institution, shall be of sufficiently good repute and possess sufficient knowledge skills and experience as referred to in sub-article (2) to perform those duties, taking into account the specific role of a financial holding company or mixed financial holding company.

(8) A credit institution shall forthwith notify to the competent authority -

- (a) full particulars of all persons who are controllers or directors of credit institution;
- (b) full particulars of any person who is proposed to become a controller or director of the credit institution;
- (c) full particulars of any person who is proposed to cease to be a controller or director of the credit institution.

(9) A credit institution shall furnish the competent authority with any further information it may require concerning any existing or proposed controller or director.

(10) If the competent authority is of the opinion that any person who is or is proposed to become a controller or director of a credit institution is not a suitable person to be a controller or director, the competent authority may make an order requiring such a person to cease to be a controller or director or restraining such a person from becoming a controller or director.

(11) For the purposes of this article control includes the power to determine in any manner the financial and operating policies of a body corporate, the power to appoint or remove the majority of the members of the board of directors or equivalent governing body or the power to cast the majority of votes at meetings of the board of directors or equivalent governing body.

Prohibited transactions.

L.N. 425 of 2007;

XVII. 2009.20;

II. 2011.15;

X. 2015.21.

15. (1) A credit institution shall not -

- (a) grant any credit facility against the security of its own shares or against any other securities issued by the credit institution itself or against any shares or any other securities of another body corporate in which the credit institution has control;
- (b) grant or permit to be outstanding credit facilities or extend other banking services, under terms and conditions more favourable than the credit institution would have otherwise applied -

- (i) to any one of its directors or their spouses whether jointly or severally, as well as with third parties:

Provided that, in any case where unsecured credit facilities are granted, these shall not in the aggregate exceed the sum of twenty-three thousand, two hundred and ninety-three euro

and seventy-three cents

(23,293.73);

- (ii) to any person in whom or in which the credit institution or any one or more of its directors is interested as a director, partner, manager, agent or member or to any person of whom or of which any one or more of the credit institution's directors is a guarantor;
 - (iii) to any body of persons in which the credit institution or any one or more of its directors jointly or severally maintains control, not being itself a credit institution or the parent undertaking of the credit institution, a subsidiary of this parent undertaking or a subsidiary of the credit institution; and where the competent authority has reason to believe that such favourable terms and conditions have been applied, it shall have the power to require the credit institution to rectify the position and if the credit institution fails to take the necessary action to rectify the position as required, the competent authority shall take such measures as it deems appropriate until the position is rectified;

- (c) grant to or permit to be outstanding in respect of any officer other than a director, or any employee, unsecured credit facilities which in the aggregate exceed twelve months' emolument of such officer or employee:

Provided that the competent authority may by Banking Rule extend the restrictions listed in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) or any of them to other officers, employees or shareholders of credit institutions or to other categories of persons in such manner and to such extent as may be specified;

- (d) without the consent of the competent authority acquire or hold shares in another company which is not a credit institution, which exceeds five per centum of that company's issued share capital or any other subsequent acquisition which exceeds the per centum amount approved by the competent authority;
- (e) purchase, acquire or otherwise hold any immovable property or any right thereon except as may be reasonably necessary for the purpose of conducting its business or housing or providing amenities for its staff:

Provided that this paragraph shall not prevent a credit institution -

- (i) from letting part of any building which is used for the purpose of conducting its business; or
- (ii) from securing a debt on any immovable property and, in the event of default in payment of such debt, from acquiring or holding such property, for realisation within twelve months, or any longer period as may be determined by the competent authority;
- (iii) in other instances from acquiring immovable property with the prior approval of the competent authority the original cost of which property shall not in the aggregate exceed five per centum of the credit institution's own funds.

(2) In sub-article (1)(b) and (c) the expression "unsecured credit facilities" shall mean credit facilities made without security or, in respect of any credit facility made with security, any part thereof which at any time exceeds the market value of the assets constituting that security, or where the competent authority is satisfied that there is no established market value, on the basis of a valuation approved by the competent authority itself.

Access to accounts maintained with a credit institution.

19B. (1) Credit institutions shall provide payment institutions, electronic money institutions and account information service providers the possibility to access a credit institution's payment account services on an objective, non-discriminatory and proportionate basis.

(2) The access referred to in sub-regulation (1) shall be sufficiently extensive as to allow payment institutions, electronic money institutions and account information service providers to provide payment services in an unhindered and efficient manner.

(3) In the event that a credit institution does not allow a payment institution, an electronic money institution or an account information service provider to have access to the credit institution's payment account services, the credit institution shall provide the competent authority with duly motivated reasons for any such rejection.

Management of operational and security risks.

19C. (1) Credit institutions shall establish a framework with appropriate mitigation measures and control mechanisms to manage the operational and security risks, relating to the payment services they provide. As part of that framework, credit institutions shall establish and maintain effective incident management procedures, including for the detection and classification of major operational and security incidents.

(2) Credit institutions shall provide to the competent authority on an annual basis, or at shorter intervals as may be determined by the competent authority, an updated and comprehensive assessment of the operational and security risks relating to the payment services they provide and on the adequacy of the mitigation measures and control mechanisms implemented in response to those risks.

(3) The competent authority may issue, amend or revoke Banking Rules as may be required in order to better implement the provisions of this article.

Incident reporting.

19D. (1) In the case of a major operational or security incident, credit institutions shall, without undue delay, where Malta is the home Member State, notify the competent authority and the Central Bank.

(2) Where the incident has or may have an impact on the financial interests of its payment service users, the credit institution concerned shall, without undue delay, inform its payment service users of the incident and of all measures that they can take to mitigate the adverse effects of the incident.

(3) Upon receipt of the notification referred to in sub-article (1), the competent authority shall, without undue delay, provide the relevant details of the incident to EBA and to the European Central Bank. That competent authority shall, in cooperation with the Central Bank, assess the relevance of the incident to the relevant authorities in Malta, and notify any such authorities accordingly.

(4) The competent authority shall in cooperation with the Central Bank, cooperate with the EBA and the European Central Bank for the purposes of assessing the relevance of the incident to other relevant European Union and national authorities in accordance with Article 96(2) of the Payment Services Directive.

(5) Where the competent authority receives a notification of a major operational or security incident in accordance with Article 96(2) of the Payment Services Directive, it shall, where appropriate, upon the basis of that notification and in cooperation with the Central Bank, take all of the necessary measures to protect the immediate safety of the financial system.

(6) Credit institutions shall, at least on an annual basis, provide to the competent authority statistical data on fraud relating to different means of payment.

(7) The competent authority shall, in cooperation with the Central Bank, provide to the EBA and the European Central Bank the data received pursuant to sub-article (6) in an aggregated form.

(8) The competent authority may issue, amend or revoke Banking Rules as may be required in order to better implement the provisions of this article.

(9) For the purposes of this article, the terms “home Member State” and “host Member State” shall have the same meaning as that assigned to them under article 2(1) of the Financial Institutions Act.

Supervision of credit institutions.

XVII. 2002.178;

XX. 2007.105;

XVII. 2009.25;

II. 2011.23;

X. 2015.32.

20. (1) Every credit institution licensed in terms of the Act, and where applicable, a financial holding company or a mixed financial holding company, shall submit to the competent authority any information which it may reasonably require in the exercise of its duties under this Act and any regulations made or Banking Rules issued thereunder and the CRR, and the competent authority may enquire into and ask for clarification of any information so submitted.

(2) Any request for information or for clarification thereof under this article shall be made by notice in writing and shall require the recipient to provide the information at such time or times or at such intervals or in respect of such period or periods as may be specified by the notice.

(3) Further, the competent authority may -

- (a) by notice in writing served on a credit institution, require the credit institution to provide a report by an accountant or other person with relevant professional skill on, or on any aspect of, any matter about which the competent authority has required or could require the credit institution to provide information under sub-article (1);
- (b) by notice in writing served on a credit institution, require it to produce within such time and at such place as may be specified in that notice, such document or documents of such description as may be so specified in the notice;
- (c) authorise an officer, servant or agent of the competent authority, on producing evidence of his authority, to require any credit institution to provide him forthwith with such information, or to produce to him forthwith such documents, as he may specify, being such information or documents as the competent authority may reasonably require for the performance of its functions under this Act and any regulations or Banking Rules made thereunder.

(4) The accountant or other person appointed by a credit institution to make any report required under sub-article (3)(a) shall be a person nominated or approved by the competent authority; and the competent authority may require the report to be in such form as is specified in the notice.

(5) Where, by virtue of sub-article (3), any person has power to require the production of any documents from a credit institution, that person shall have the like power to require the production of those documents from any person who appears to be in possession of them.

(6) The power under this article to require a credit institution or any other person to produce any documents includes power -

- (a) if the documents are produced, to take copies of them or extracts from them and to require that credit institution or person, or any other person who is a present or past officer of, or is or was at any time employed by or acting as an employee of, the credit institution in question, to provide an explanation of any of them; and
- (b) if the documents are not produced, to require the person who was required to produce them to state, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where they are.

(7) If it appears to the competent authority to be desirable in the interests of the depositors or potential depositors of a credit institution to do so, or if otherwise required to fulfil its supervisory responsibilities, it may also exercise the powers conferred by sub-articles (1) and (3) in relation to any person who is or has at any relevant time been -

- (a) a holding company, subsidiary or a company which is a connected person of that credit institution;
- (b) a subsidiary or a person which is a company connected to a holding company of that credit institution;
- (c) a holding company of a subsidiary of that credit institution; or
- (d) a controller of that credit institution; or
- (e) an outsourcing service provider of that credit institution.

(8) The competent authority may by notice in writing served on any person who is or is to be an officer of a credit institution require him to furnish, within such time as may be specified in the notice, such information or documents as the competent authority may reasonably require for determining whether he is a suitable person to hold the particular position which he holds or is to hold.

(9) The competent authority may exercise the powers conferred by sub-articles (1) and (3) in relation to any person who has a qualifying shareholding in a credit institution if it considers that the exercise of those powers is desirable in the interests of the depositors or potential depositors of that credit institution.

(10) A statement made by a person in compliance with a requirement imposed by virtue of this article may be used in evidence against him.

(11) The competent authority shall have the power to recover from a credit institution reported on under sub-article (3) the costs and expenses incurred in relation to such report.

Right of entry to obtain information and documents.

Amended by:

X. 2015.33.

21. (1) Any officer, employee, agent or inspector of the competent authority may, on producing, if required, evidence of his authority -

- (a) enter any premises occupied by a person on whom a notice has been served under article 20 above or article 22 below for the purpose of obtaining there the information or documents required by that notice;
- (b) enter any premises occupied by any person on whom a notice could be served under article 20 above or article 22 below for the purpose of obtaining there such information or documents as are specified in the authority, being information or documents that could have been required by such a notice; but the competent authority shall not authorise any person to act under this paragraph unless it has reasonable cause to believe that if such a notice were served it would not be complied with or that any documents to which it would relate would be removed, tampered with or destroyed:

Provided that where an entry as is mentioned in this sub-article involves premises that are occupied for the purposes of habitation, such entry shall be carried out in the presence of an officer of the Police of a rank not below that of inspector and shall moreover not take place between nine in the evening and five in the morning.

(2) No person shall intentionally obstruct a person exercising rights conferred by this article.

Investigations.

Amended by:

XX. 2007.106;
XVII. 2009.26;
II. 2011.24;
X. 2015.34.

22. (1) If it appears to the competent authority desirable to do so in the interests of the depositors or potential depositors of a credit institution, or if otherwise required to fulfil its supervisory responsibilities, it may appoint one or more competent persons, as inspectors, to investigate and report on -

- (a) the nature, conduct or state of the credit institution's business or any particular aspect of it, or
- (b) the ownership or control of the credit institution, and the competent authority shall give written notice of any such appointment to the credit institution concerned.

(2) If a person appointed under sub-article (1) thinks it necessary for the purposes of his investigation, he may also investigate the business of any person who is or has at any relevant time been -

- (a) a holding company, subsidiary or a company which is a connected person of the credit institution under investigation;
- (b) a subsidiary or a company which is a connected person of a holding company of that credit institution;
- (c) a holding company of a subsidiary of that credit institution; or
- (d) a controller of that credit institution; or
- (e) an outsourcing service provider of that credit institution.

(3) The competent authority may exercise the powers conferred by sub-article (1) in relation to any person who has a qualifying shareholding in a credit institution if it considers that the exercise of those powers is desirable in the interests of the depositors or potential depositors of that credit institution.

(4) Where a person appointed under sub-article (1) decides to investigate the business of any person by virtue of sub-article (2) or sub-article (3) he shall inform that person by notice in writing.

(5) It shall be the duty of every person who is or was an officer, employee, agent, banker or auditor of a body which is under investigation under this Act and any regulations or Banking Rules made thereunder, or any person appointed to make a report in respect of that body under this Act and any regulations or Banking Rules made thereunder and anyone who has a qualifying shareholding in, or is a controller of that body -

- (a) to produce to the persons appointed under sub-article (1), within such time and at such place as they may require, all documents relating to the body concerned which are in his custody or power;
- (b) to attend before the persons so appointed at such time and place as they may require; and
- (c) otherwise to give those persons all assistance in connection with the investigation which he is reasonably able to give, and those persons may take copies of or extracts from any documents produced to them under paragraph (a) above.

(6) A person exercising powers by virtue of an appointment under this article shall, if so required, produce evidence of his authority.

(7) No person shall -

- (a) without lawful excuse fail to produce any documents which it is his duty to produce under sub-article (5);
- (b) without lawful excuse fail to attend before the persons appointed under sub-article (1) when required to do so; or
- (c) without lawful excuse fail to answer any question which is put to him by persons so appointed with respect to any credit institution which is under investigation or a body which is being investigated by virtue of sub-article (2) or (3).

(8) A statement made by a person in compliance with a requirement imposed by virtue of this article may be used in evidence against him.

(9) The competent authority shall have the power to recover from a credit institution reported on under sub-article (1) the costs and expenses incurred in relation to such report.

(10) For the purposes of this article, reference to a credit institution shall include reference to persons appearing to be carrying out the business of banking.

25. (1) On the basis of Malta's international commitments, the competent authority may share its supervisory duties with overseas regulatory authorities in the case of a credit institution licensed in terms of this Act and operating in the country of such overseas regulatory authority or a branch established in Malta and having its head office in another Member State.

(2) The competent authority may further, on the basis of Malta's international commitments, exchange information with overseas regulatory authorities or transmit information to the ESRB, the EBA or the European Securities and Markets Authority established by Regulation \(EU\) No. 1095/2010, in accordance with the Act and any regulations made and Banking Rules issued thereunder transposing the CRD , and the CRR and with other Directives applicable to credit institutions, with Article 15 of Regulation \(EU\) No. 1092/2010, with Articles 31, 35 and 36 of Regulation \(EU\) No. 1093/2010 and with Articles 31 and 36 of Regulation \(EU\) No. 1095/2010. Such information shall be subject to professional secrecy provided for under this Act and any regulations issued thereunder.

(3) The competent authority may also conclude cooperation agreements, providing for exchanges of information, with third country overseas regulatory authorities or with authorities or bodies of third countries in accordance with sub-articles (7) and (8), only if the information disclosed is subject to a guarantee that professional secrecy requirements at least equivalent to those referred to in article 34(4) and (5) are complied with:

Provided that such exchange of information shall be for the purpose of performing the supervisory tasks of the authorities or bodies mentioned in this sub-article:

Provided further that where the information originates in another Member State, it shall only be disclosed with the express agreement of the overseas regulatory authority which has disclosed it, and where appropriate, solely for the purposes for which the overseas regulatory authority gave its agreement.

(4) The competent authority may disclose information under the provisions of sub-article (2) only to the extent that the overseas regulatory authorities receiving the information restrict its use for supervisory and regulatory purposes or for such other purposes as may specifically be agreed upon with the competent authority.

(5) The competent authority may further, on the basis of international agreements, or upon reciprocity agreements, authorise overseas regulatory authorities to carry out themselves, or through the intermediation of competent persons they appoint, on-site inspections for supervisory and regulatory purposes in branches or subsidiaries of credit institutions having their head office in the country of the overseas regulatory authority making the inspection:

Provided that on-the-spot checking and inspection of branches established in Malta of credit institutions authorised in another Member State, shall be carried out in accordance with the European Passport Rights for Credit Institutions Regulations.

(6) Nothing in this Act shall prevent the competent authority from transmitting information to the following for the purposes of their tasks -

- (a) the Central Bank, ESCB central banks and other bodies with a similar function in their capacity as monetary authorities when the information is relevant for the exercise of their respective statutory tasks, including the conduct of monetary policy and related liquidity provision, oversight of payments, clearing and settlement systems and the safeguarding of stability of the financial system;
- (b) contractual or institutional protection schemes as referred to in Article 113(7) of the CRR;
- (c) where appropriate, other public authorities responsible for overseeing payment systems;
- (d) the ESRB, the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority established by Regulation \(EU\) No. 1094/2010 and the European Securities and Markets Authority established by Regulation \(EU\) No. 1095/2010, where that information is relevant for the exercise of their tasks under Regulations (EU) No. 1092/2010, (EU) No. 1094/2010 or (EU) No. 1095/2010:

Provided that the competent authority shall take the appropriate measures to remove obstacles preventing it from transmitting information in accordance with this sub-article:

Provided further that information received in accordance with this sub-article shall be subject to professional secrecy requirements at least equivalent to those referred to in article 34(4) and (5):

Provided further that in an emergency situation, including a situation as described in Article 18 of Regulation \(EU\) No. 1093/2010 or a situation of adverse developments in markets arises, which potentially jeopardises the market liquidity and the stability of the financial system, the competent authority shall communicate without delay information to the ESCB central banks where that information is relevant for the exercise of their statutory tasks, including the conduct of monetary policy and related liquidity provision, the oversight of payments, clearing and settlement systems, and to the ESRB where such information is relevant for the exercise of its statutory tasks.

(7) The provisions of article 34(4), (5) and (7) shall not preclude the exchange of information between the competent authority and other authorities in Malta; between the competent authority and overseas regulatory authorities in other Member States; or between the competent authority and the following, in the discharge of their supervisory functions -

- (a) authorities entrusted with the public duty of supervising other financial sector entities and the authorities responsible for the supervision of financial markets;
- (b) authorities or bodies charged with responsibility for maintaining the stability of the financial system in Member States through the use of macro-prudential rules;
- (c) reorganisation bodies or authorities aiming at protecting the stability of the financial system;
- (d) contractual or institutional protection schemes as referred to in Article 113(7) of the CRR;
- (e) bodies involved in the liquidation and bankruptcy of credit institutions and in other similar procedures;
- (f) persons responsible for carrying out statutory audits of the accounts of institutions, insurance undertakings and financial institutions:

Provided that the provisions of article 34(4), (5) and (7) shall not preclude the disclosure to bodies which administer deposit-guarantee schemes and investor compensation schemes of information necessary for the exercise of their functions:

Provided further that the information received shall in any event be subject to professional secrecy requirements at least equivalent to those referred to in article 34(4) and (5).

(8) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-article (3) of this article and article 34(4), (5) and (7), the competent authority may exchange information with the authorities responsible for overseeing -

- (a) the bodies involved in the liquidation and bankruptcy of institutions and in other similar procedures;
- (b) contractual or institutional protection schemes as referred to in Article 113(7) of the CRR;
- (c) persons charged with carrying out statutory audits of the accounts of institutions, insurance undertakings and financial institutions:

Provided that in the cases referred to in this sub-article, the competent authority shall require fulfilment of at least the following conditions:

- (i) that the information is exchanged for the purpose of performing the tasks referred to in this sub-article;
- (ii) that the information received is subject to professional secrecy requirements at least equivalent to those referred to in article 34(4) and (5);
- (iii) where the information originates in another Member State, that it is not disclosed without the express agreement of the overseas regulatory authorities which have disclosed it and, where appropriate, solely for the purposes for which those authorities gave their agreement:

Provided further that where the authorities or bodies referred to in this sub-article perform their task of detection or investigation through the assistance of persons appointed for that purpose in view of their specific competence and not employed in the public sector, the competent authority may exchange information with the authorities or bodies responsible under the law for the detection and investigation of breaches of company law, to such persons, and shall require the fulfilment of at least the following conditions:

- (i) that the information is exchanged for the purpose of detecting and investigating breaches of company law;
- (ii) that the information received is subject to professional secrecy requirements at least equivalent to those referred to in article 34(4) and (5);
- (iii) where the information originates in another Member State, that it is not disclosed without the express agreement of the overseas regulatory authorities which have disclosed it and, where appropriate, solely for the purposes for which those authorities gave their agreement.

(9) Notwithstanding the provisions of article 34(4), (5) and (7), the competent authority may authorise the disclosure of certain information to other government departments of other Member States' central government administrations responsible for legislation on the supervision of institutions, financial institutions and insurance undertakings and to inspectors acting on behalf of those departments:

Provided that such disclosures may be made only where necessary for reasons of prudential supervision and prevention and resolution of failing credit institutions. Without prejudice to sub-article (10), persons having access to the information shall be subject to professional secrecy requirements at least equivalent to those referred to in article 34(4) and (5):

Provided further that in an emergency situation, including a situation as described in Article 18 of Regulation \(EU\) No. 1093/2010 or a situation of adverse developments in markets arises, which potentially jeopardises the market liquidity and the stability of the financial system, the competent authority may disclose information which is relevant to the departments referred to in this sub-article in all Member States concerned.

(10) The competent authority may disclose certain information relating to the prudential supervision of credit institutions to parliamentary enquiry committees, courts of auditors and other entities in charge of enquiries in Malta, under the following conditions -

- (a) that the entities have a precise mandate under Maltese law to investigate or scrutinise the actions of the competent authority or for laws on the supervision of credit institutions;
- (b) that the information is strictly necessary for fulfilling the mandate referred to in paragraph (a);
- (c) the persons with access to the information are subject to professional secrecy requirements at least equivalent to those referred to in article 34(4) and (5);
- (d) where the information originates in another Member State, such information shall not be disclosed without the express agreement of the overseas regulatory authorities which have disclosed it and, solely for the purposes for which those overseas regulatory authorities gave their agreement:

Cap. 440.

Provided that where the disclosure of information relating to prudential supervision involves the processing of personal data, any processing by the entities referred to in this sub-article shall comply with the Data Protection Act and any regulations made thereunder.

(11) The competent authority shall not disclose in terms of sub-articles (9) and (10), any information received under Article 52, Article 53(2) and Article 56 of the CRD, except with the express consent of the overseas regulatory authority of the Member State in which such an on-the-spot check or inspection was carried out or of the overseas regulatory authority of the Member State which disclosed such information.

(12) The competent authority may further communicate information, received inter alia under the provisions of this Act, to a clearing house or other similar body recognised under national law for the provision of clearing or settlement services of the relevant national market, if it considers that it is necessary to communicate such information in order to ensure the proper functioning of these bodies in relation to defaults or potential defaults by market participants:

Provided that the information received under this article shall be subject to the conditions of professional secrecy at least equivalent to those referred to in article 34(4) and (5):

Provided further that the information received under this sub-article may not be disclosed by the competent authority without the express consent of the overseas regulatory authority which had disclosed it.

(13) There shall be meetings held between a credit institution, its appointed auditors and the competent authority on a trilateral or bilateral basis as circumstances may warrant. These meetings may be called by any of the parties concerned but shall always be chaired by the competent authority.

(14) For the purposes of this article, "financial institution" shall have the same meaning as that assigned to it in point (26) of Article 4(1) of the CRR.

Power of competent authority to take control of credit institutions.

Amended by:

XVII. 2002.185;

XX. 2007.114.

29. (1) If, whether from any report made under article 20 or article 22 or otherwise, it appears to the competent authority that any of the circumstances indicated in article 9(2) apply, the competent authority, after consulting with the Central Bank, may, without prejudice to the provisions of article 9(2) -

- (a) require the credit institution forthwith to take such steps as the competent authority may consider necessary to remedy or rectify the matter;
- (b) appoint a competent person to advise the credit institution in the proper conduct of its business;
- (c) appoint a competent person to take charge of the assets of the credit institution or any portion of them for the purpose of safeguarding the interests of depositors;

- (d) appoint a competent person to assume control of the business of the credit institution and either to carry on that business or to carry out such other function or functions in respect of such business, or part thereof, as the competent authority may direct;
 - (e) require the credit institution to wind up its business or to wind up its business in Malta;
 - (f) appoint a competent person to act as liquidator for the purpose of winding up the affairs of the credit institution;
 - (g) fix the remuneration to be paid by the credit institution to any competent person appointed under this sub-article.
- (2) Where a competent person is appointed by the competent authority:
- (a) under sub-article (1)(b), the credit institution shall act in accordance with the advice given by such person unless and until the competent authority otherwise directs;
 - (b) under sub-article (1)(c), the credit institution shall deliver to such person all the assets of which he is placed in charge, and all the powers, functions and duties of the credit institution in respect of those assets whether exercisable by the company in general meeting or by the board of directors or by any other person, including the legal and judicial representation of the credit institution, shall be exercisable by and vest in him to the exclusion of the credit institution;
 - (c) under sub-article (1)(d), the credit institution shall submit its business to the control of such person and shall provide him with such facilities as he may require in order to carry on that business or to carry out the functions assigned to him under that paragraph, and all the powers, functions and duties of the credit institution, whether exercisable by the company in general meeting or by the board of directors or by any other person, including the legal and judicial representation of the credit institution in all matters, shall be exercisable by and vest in him to the exclusion of any other person.
- (3) Where a person is appointed under sub-article (1)(c) or (d) -
- (a) any function, power or duty exercisable by any other person, including the curator of a bankrupt or any other person appointed by or under any other law, and relating to any assets or business of which the person appointed under either of the paragraphs aforesaid is placed in charge or in control, shall, unless or until the competent authority otherwise directs or an express provision of law specifically provides otherwise, cease to be so exercisable;
 - (b) the person appointed under either of the paragraphs aforesaid shall, in respect of such property, partnerships, firms or other business as the competent authority may specify and in which the credit institution has an interest, whether directly or indirectly, including any interest arising from advances or loans made or credit facilities given or any liability undertaken, have such powers, functions and duties, including legal and judicial representation, as the competent authority may direct, and any such power, function or duty shall be exercisable by and vest in such person to the exclusion of any other person:

Provided that:

- (i) the competent authority shall have power to direct that all or any of the powers, functions or duties aforesaid should be exercisable by any other person, and in any such case, with effect from such date or dates as the competent authority may specify and unless and until the competent authority otherwise directs, the powers, functions and duties to which the direction of the competent authority applies shall be exercisable by and vest in such other person appointed for the purpose to the exclusion of all others;
- (ii) where the competent authority is of the opinion that the credit institution has ceased to have any interest as aforesaid, it shall direct that any powers, functions and duties exercisable under this paragraph shall cease to be so exercisable, but any such direction shall not affect anything done or omitted to be done by virtue or by reason of any of the aforesaid powers, functions or duties;
- (c) the person appointed under either of the paragraphs aforesaid shall have the power to require any other person to provide him with such facilities as he may deem necessary to carry out any of the powers, functions or duties under this article;

Cap. 13.

- (d) the provision of law relating to bankruptcy and in particular Part III of the Commercial Code shall cease to apply to, and shall cease to operate in respect of any property, partnership, firm or other business specified by the competent authority under paragraph (b), unless and until, or except to the extent that, the competent authority otherwise directs; and in any such case the person appointed as aforesaid shall, subject to any directions of the competent authority given in the interest of the creditors, act as if those provisions did not exist and as if any declaration of bankruptcy had not been made;
 - (e) any person appointed by the competent authority under any of the provisions of this article shall submit six-monthly reports of his activities and annual accounts of all transactions carried out by him in the performance of his functions audited by an independent auditor to the Minister who will place such reports and accounts on the table of the House of Representatives within fifteen days.
- (4) Where a person is appointed under sub-article (1)(f), such person shall be the liquidator of the company for all purposes of law to the exclusion of any other person.
- (5) The provisions of this article shall have effect notwithstanding any other provision of any enactment, and notwithstanding any deed, contract, instrument or other document whatsoever.

(6) The foregoing provisions of this article vesting exclusive powers of representation in a person appointed by the competent authority thereunder shall apply also to any act or proceedings commenced or instituted before such representation vested as aforesaid, and in respect of any such act or proceedings any other person acting or purporting to act, or in respect of whom action is taken, in that capacity shall cease to be a party to, and shall be excluded from, any such act or proceedings.

(7) No person shall in any way obstruct a person appointed under sub-article (1) in the performance of any of his functions, powers or duties under this article.

~~(8) In respect of a credit institution operating in Malta and elsewhere the offices and branches in Malta of that credit institution shall, if the competent authority so directs and to the extent it so directs, be deemed to constitute a separate credit institution.~~

(9) Upon receipt of a report as is mentioned in sub-article (1), the competent authority shall inform the Central Bank on whether it intends to take any action pursuant to such report and of any action it intends to take thereon.

Cap. 386.

- (b) For the purpose of this article an approved auditor shall be a person who is qualified to be an auditor in accordance with the Companies Act, and holds the authorisation of the competent authority to act as auditor of a credit institution.

(2) If a credit institution fails to appoint an auditor under sub-article (1) or, at any time fails to fill any vacancy in the office of an auditor, the competent authority shall have the power to appoint an auditor for that credit institution and shall fix the remuneration to be paid by that credit institution to such auditor.

- (3) The auditors' report shall include statements as to the following matters -

- (a) whether they have obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of their knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of their audit;
- (b) whether in their opinion, proper books of account have been kept by the credit institution, so far as appears from their examination of those books,
- (c) whether the credit institution's financial statements dealt with by the report are in agreement with the books of account;
- (d) whether, in their opinion, and to the best of their knowledge and according to the explanations given to them, the said financial statements give the information required by any law which may from time to time be in force in the manner so required and give a true and fair view.

(4) The report of the auditors shall be read together with the report of the directors of the credit institution at the annual meeting of shareholders.

(5) Every auditor of a credit institution shall have the right to demand such information or explanation as he deems necessary in the performance of his duties from any officer or employee of the credit institution.

(6) A credit institution shall forthwith give written notice to the competent authority -

- (a) on the appointment of its auditors;
- (b) if it proposes to give notice to its shareholders to -
 - (i) replace its auditors at the expiration of their term of office;
 - (ii) remove its auditors before the expiration of their term of office;
- (c) if the auditors cease to be auditors of the credit institution for any reason other than those in paragraph (b).

(7) The competent authority may require a credit institution to change its appointed auditors where, in the competent authority's opinion, such auditors are considered unfit for this appointment at any time during their term of office.

(8) An auditor shall immediately advise the competent authority if -

- (a) he resigns;
- (b) he does not seek to be re-appointed; or
- (c) he decides to qualify the audit report.

(9) In his capacity as an auditor of a credit institution or due to a direct request by the competent authority under article 20 or under article 22, an auditor shall promptly notify the competent authority of any fact or decision concerning that credit institution of which he has become aware while carrying out his tasks, which is liable to -

- (a) constitute a material breach of this Act and any regulations made or Banking Rules issued thereunder which lay down the licensing conditions or which specifically govern the activities of credit institutions;

- (b) affect the ongoing functioning of the credit institution;
- (c) affect the depositors of the credit institution, of the branches in Malta of a credit institution authorised by an overseas regulatory authority or of any connected person which is a credit institution;
- (d) lead to refusal to certify the accounts or to the expression of reservations:

Provided that an auditor shall also have the duty to report any fact or decision of which he becomes aware in the course of carrying out his tasks in an undertaking having close links resulting from a control relationship with the credit institution within which he is carrying out that task.

(10) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of the foregoing sub-articles, the competent authority may in the case of a credit institution not licensed in Malta grant exemption by way of Banking Rule from any of the requirements of this article provided that the same does not materially detract from the main objects of this article.

Cap. 386.

(11) In so far as the provisions of this article are inconsistent with the provisions of the Companies Act, the provisions of this article shall prevail and the provisions of the said Act shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, not apply to credit institutions.

X. 2015.46.

32. (1) No person -

- (a) who has been adjudged bankrupt or has made a composition with his creditors or has been an officer of a credit institution which has had its licence withdrawn under article 9(2); and who has not been exempted in writing by the competent authority from the provisions of this article; or
- (b) who is interdicted or incapacitated or who has been involved in money laundering or found guilty of a crime affecting public trust, theft, fraud, extortion or of knowingly receiving property obtained by theft or fraud, shall act or continue to act as an officer of a credit institution.

Duties of officers.

Amended by:
XVII. 2002.188;
XX. 2007.85;
X. 2015.47.

33. Every officer of a credit institution shall take all reasonable steps -

- (a) to secure compliance by the credit institution with all of the provisions of this Act and of its licence or any Banking Rule or regulation issued under this Act, and
- (b) to ensure that no incorrect information is provided to the competent authority either wilfully or as the result of gross negligence.

Confidentiality.

34. (1) Nothing in this Act shall authorise the Central Bank or the competent authority to enquire or cause an enquiry to be made in a credit institution into the affairs of any individual customer of a credit institution except -

- (a) for the purpose of ensuring compliance with any of the provisions of this or any other Act, or

Cap. 204.

- (b) for the purpose of enabling the Central Bank to satisfy its responsibilities under the Central Bank of Malta Act, or
- (c) for the purpose of enabling the Central Bank or the competent authority, as the case may be, to satisfy their respective obligations arising under Malta's international commitments.

(2) No person, including past and present officers or agents of a bank, shall disclose any information relating to the affairs of a bank or of a customer of a bank which he has acquired in the performance of his duties or the exercise of his functions under this Act and any regulations or Banking Rules made thereunder except -

- (a) when authorised to do so under any of the provisions of this Act and any regulations or Banking Rules made thereunder; or
- (b) for the purpose of the performance of his duties or the exercise of his functions;
- (c) when lawfully required to do so by any court or under a provision of any law;
- (d) for the purpose of enabling the Central Bank or the competent authority, as the case may be, to satisfy their respective obligations arising under Malta's international commitments; or
- (e) when the customer expressly consents, in writing, to the disclosure of information relating to his affairs, to the extent authorised by the customer.

Cap. 373.

(3) Where an officer of a credit institution has reason to believe that a transaction or a proposed transaction could involve money laundering or the funding of terrorism, he shall act in compliance with the reporting and other obligations set out in the regulations made under article 12 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, and any procedures and guidance issued thereunder, and such disclosure shall not constitute a breach of confidentiality.

Cap. 9.

(4) Officers of the competent authority and of the Central Bank, including past and present officers, as well as auditors or experts acting on behalf of the competent authority or the Central Bank, shall be governed by the obligation of professional secrecy and shall not disclose information obtained from credit institutions in the course of carrying out supervisory and other duties unless such disclosure of information be done in summary or collective form, so as not to enable the identity of the credit institution, to whom such information relates, to be ascertained, without prejudice to the provisions of the Criminal Code:

Provided that the said officers, auditors or experts may divulge such information for the purpose of the performance of their duties or the exercise of their functions, or when lawfully required to do so by any court or under a provision of any law:

Provided further that where a credit institution has been declared bankrupt or is being compulsorily wound up, confidential information which does not concern third parties involved in attempts to rescue that credit institution may be disclosed in civil or commercial proceedings.

(5) The provisions of sub-article (4) shall not prevent the competent authority from exchanging information with overseas regulatory authorities or transmitting information to the ESRB, the EBA or the European Securities and Markets Authority established by Regulation \(EU\) No. 1095/2010, in accordance with the Act and any regulations made and Banking Rules issued thereunder transposing the CRD , and the CRR and with other Directives applicable to credit institutions, with Article 15 of Regulation \(EU\) No. 1092/2010, with Articles 31, 35 and 36 of Regulation \(EU\) No. 1093/2010 and with Articles 31 and 36 of Regulation (EU) No. 1095/2010. That information shall be subject to the provisions of sub-article (4):

Provided that the provisions of sub-article (4) shall not prevent the competent authority from publishing the outcome of stress tests carried out in accordance with the Banking Act \(Supervisory Review\) Regulations or Article 32 of Regulation \(EU\) No. 1093/2010 or from transmitting the outcome of the stress tests to the EBA for the purpose of the publication by the EBA of the results of Union-wide stress tests.

Cap. 377.

Cap 9.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Professional Secrecy Act and of article 257 of the Criminal Code, a credit institution may, where necessary for the proper carrying out of its activities or for the fulfilment of its obligations, communicate any information which is in its possession and which is related to the affairs of a customer or of a connected person to:

Cap. 331.

Cap. 370.

Cap. 376.

Cap. 403.

- (a) other members of the group of companies of which that institution forms part, which carry out any activities licensed or authorised by the competent authority under this Act, the Trusts and Trustees Act, the Investment Services Act, the Financial Institutions Act or the Insurance Business Act, or which otherwise carry out activities equivalent to those activities mentioned in this paragraph, and which are authorised by an overseas regulatory authority in a recognised jurisdiction; or
- (b) any auditor or expert engaged by the credit institution to carry out a compliance assessment, monitoring, auditing or a similar review in relation to any of the activities or risk management processes of the credit institution or of the group of companies of which it forms part in order to assess the credit institution's compliance with any statutory obligations relating to the prevention of money laundering and the funding of terrorism;
- (c) an outsourcing service provider in whose favour a credit institution has outsourced any of its activities. This shall be without prejudice to article 19A:

Provided that, for the purposes of this sub-article, any such communication of information shall be made subject to all proper controls and safeguards, so that it shall be the responsibility of the credit institution to ensure that the group company member, the auditor or expert, or the outsourcing service provider, as the case may be, is subject to equivalent obligations of data protection, confidentiality and care as required under Maltese law and any European Union law, including Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation):

Provided further that for the purpose of this article, advertising, marketing or promotion, shall not, under any circumstances, be considered as necessary for the proper carrying out of the activities of a credit institution or for the fulfilment of its obligations:

Provided further that communication of information made in terms of paragraphs (a) to (c) shall be without prejudice to any provision of the Prevention of Money Laundering and Funding of Terrorism Regulations.

(7) Where the competent authority receives confidential information under this article, it shall use such information only in the course of its duties and only for any of the following purposes -

- (a) to check that the conditions governing access to the activity of credit institutions are met and to facilitate monitoring, on a non-consolidated or consolidated basis, of the conduct of such activity, especially with regard to the monitoring of liquidity, solvency, large exposures and administrative and accounting procedures and internal control mechanisms;
- (b) to impose penalties;
- (c) in an appeal against a decision of the competent authority including court proceedings pursuant to article 10;
- (d) in court proceedings initiated pursuant to special provisions provided for in European Union law adopted in the field of credit institutions.

Cap. 440.

(8) The competent authority, when processing personal data for the purposes of the Act and any regulations and Banking Rules issued thereunder shall do so in accordance with the Data Protection Act and any regulations made thereunder and, where relevant, with Regulation \(EC\) No. 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data.

(9) The provisions of article 25(2) and sub-articles (4), (5) and (7) of this article shall be without prejudice to the powers of investigation conferred on the European Parliament pursuant to Article 226 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

Data protection.

34A. (1) Credit institutions may, when necessary to safeguard the prevention, investigation and detection of payment fraud, process personal data.

(2) The provision of information to individuals about the processing of personal data, and the processing of such personal data shall be carried out in accordance with any applicable data protection legislation.

(3) Credit institutions shall only access, process and retain personal data necessary for the provision of their services with the explicit consent of those making use of their services.

35. (1) Any person who -

- (a) fails to comply with any directive issued by the competent authority under this Act;
- (b) without reasonable excuse alters, suppresses, conceals, destroys or refuses to produce any document which he is lawfully required to produce by any person under this Act and any regulations made or Banking Rules issued thereunder;
- (c) makes a statement, promise or forecast which he knows to be misleading, false or deceptive, or dishonestly conceals any material facts;
- (d) recklessly makes (dishonestly or otherwise) a statement, promise or forecast which is misleading, false or deceptive; or
- (e) contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of articles 2A, 5(1) and (2), 6(1), 12, 13, 17B, 21(2), 22(7), 23(4), 24, 28(a), 29(7), 32, 33(b), and 34(2) and (4), shall be guilty of an offence:

Provided that, with respect to paragraphs (c) and (d), a person shall be guilty of an offence if he makes the statement, promise or forecast or conceals the facts for the purpose of inducing, or is reckless as to whether it may induce, another person (whether or not to the person to whom the statement, promise or forecast is made or from whom the facts are concealed) -

- (i) to make, or refrain from making, a deposit with him or any other person; or
- (ii) to enter, or refrain from entering, into an agreement for the purpose of making such a deposit:

Provided further that, with respect to paragraphs (c) and (d), a person shall not be guilty of an offence unless -

- (i) the statement, promise or forecast is made in or from Malta, or the facts are concealed in or from Malta, or arrangements are made in or from Malta for the statement, promise or forecast to be made or the facts to be concealed;
- (ii) the person on whom the inducement is intended to or may have effect on is in Malta; or
- (iii) the deposit is or would be made, or the agreement is or would be entered into, in Malta.

(2) Any person who is knowingly a party to, or procures or aids and abets the commission of any offence under sub-article (1), shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to the same penalties as the principal offender.

(3) Any person found guilty of an offence shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine (multa) not exceeding two million euro (€2,000,000) or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding three years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(4) No proceedings for an offence under this Act shall be commenced without the sanction of the Attorney General.

Administrative penalties and other administrative measures imposed by the competent authority.

35A. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of articles 35 and 35B and to any regulations made under article 3(1)(e), where any person fails to comply with any of the conditions imposed in a licence, and, or where the competent authority is satisfied that a person's conduct amounts to a breach of any of the provisions of this Act, or any regulations made or Banking Rules issued thereunder, or the CRR, or such person has failed to comply with a directive issued by the competent authority under this Act, or any regulation made or Banking Rules issued thereunder, or the CRR, the competent authority may, by notice in writing and without recourse to a court hearing, impose on such person an administrative penalty of -

- (a) up to twice the amount of the benefit derived from the breach where that benefit can be determined;

(b) in the case of a natural person, up to five million euro (€5,000,000); or

(c) in the case of a legal person, up to 10% of the total annual net turnover of the undertaking in the preceding business year including the gross income consisting of interest receivable and similar income, income from shares and other variable or fixed-yield securities, and commissions or fees receivable in accordance with Article 316 of the CRR:

Provided that, in the case of a subsidiary of a parent undertaking, the relevant gross income shall be the gross income resulting from the consolidated account of the ultimate parent undertaking in the preceding business year.

(2) The Minister may, acting on the advice of the competent authority, make regulations as shall be deemed appropriate to provide for the establishment and imposition of administrative penalties and other administrative measures on licence holders or others as may be specified therein.

(3) Where the competent authority decides to impose an administrative penalty, it shall notify the person on whom the penalty is being imposed by means of a notice in writing.

(4) Where the person upon whom the notice referred to in sub-article (3) is served -

(a) fails to pay to the competent authority the amount of the penalty within a period of thirty days of the service of the notice, and fails to appeal from the decision of the competent authority to the Financial Services Tribunal; or

(b) appeals to the Financial Service Tribunal and fails within a period of fifteen days from the decision of the Tribunal to pay the administrative penalty as confirmed or as reduced by that Tribunal, then, in every case, the amount of the administrative penalty, as originally imposed or as reduced, as the case may be, shall be due to the competent authority as a civil debt, and the provisions of sub-article (5) shall apply.

Cap. 12.

(5) A notice as is referred to in sub-article (3), or the decision of the Financial Services Tribunal, as the case may be, shall upon the service by judicial act of a copy thereof on the person indicated in the notice, constitute an executive title for all effects and purposes of Title VII of Part I of Book Second of the Code of Organization and Civil Procedure.

(6) The imposition by the competent authority of an administrative penalty in terms of this article shall be without prejudice to any other consequences of the act or omission of the offender under civil or criminal law:

Provided that in all cases where the competent authority imposes an administrative penalty in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by any person and such act or omission also constitutes a criminal offence, no proceedings may be taken or continued against the said person in respect of such criminal offence.

Publication of administrative penalties.

Added by:

X. 2015.51.

35B. (1) The competent authority shall publish, on its official website and in any other media as it considers appropriate, any administrative penalty or penalties imposed under the provisions of this Act and of any regulations made or Banking Rules issued thereunder, and the CRR. Such publications shall include information on the type and nature of the breach and the identity of the person on whom the penalty is imposed, without undue delay after that person is informed of those penalties:

Provided that in cases where an appeal has been filed by the person on whom such administrative penalty or penalties have been imposed, the competent authority shall, without undue delay, also publish on its official website and in any other media as it considers appropriate, information on the status of the appeal and the outcome thereof.

(2) The competent authority shall publish the penalties imposed under the provisions of this Act and of any regulations made or Banking Rules issued thereunder, and of the CRR, on an anonymous basis, in any of the following circumstances:

- (a) where the penalty is imposed on a natural person and, following an obligatory prior assessment, publication of personal data is found to be disproportionate;
- (b) where publication would jeopardise the stability of financial markets or an on-going criminal investigation;
- (c) where publication would cause, insofar as it can be determined, disproportionate damage to the credit institutions or natural persons involved:

Provided that, with respect to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c), publication on an anonymous basis in any such circumstances shall be an exceptional measure which needs to be justified by a detailed report compiled by the competent authority:

Provided further that, where the circumstances referred to in this sub-article are likely to cease within a reasonable period of time, publication under this article may be postponed for such a period of time.

(3) Information published in terms of this article shall remain on the official website of the competent authority for a period of not less than five years. Personal data shall be retained on the official website of the competent authority and in any other media it considers appropriate only for the period necessary, in accordance with the provisions of Maltese legislation on data protection.

Application of Act to the Central Bank.

36. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to the Central Bank, save where and to the extent that the Central Bank is referred to by name.

Transitional provisions relating to the Payment Services Directive.

37. (1) Credit institutions that have performed in Malta, before 12 January 2016, activities of payment initiation service providers and account information service providers shall, until the 13 of January 2018 or until eighteen months after the date of entry into force of the regulatory technical standards referred to in Article 98 of the Payment Services Directive, whichever is the later, not be prohibited from continuing to perform such activities in Malta in accordance with the currently applicable regulatory framework.

(2) Until credit institutions acting as individual account servicing payment service providers comply with the regulatory technical standards referred to in Article 115(4) of the Payment Services Directive, such credit institutions shall not abuse their non-compliance to block or obstruct the use of payment initiation services or account information services for the account that they are servicing.
