B. Rights of defence and right to effective judicial protection under Tunisian law:

The rights of defence and the right to effective judicial protection

It follows from Articles 20, 27, 29 and 108 of the Tunisian constitution, Articles 13, 47, 50, 59, 66 and 175 of the Criminal Procedure Code and Law No 2002-52 of 3 June 2002 that the following rights are guaranteed under Tunisian law:

- to any individual suspected of or charged with a criminal offence:
 1. the right to judicial review of any act or administrative decision;
 2. the right to defend himself/herself in person or through legal assistance of his/her own choosing or, if he/she has not sufficient means to pay for legal assistance, to be given it free when the interests of justice so require;
- to any individual charged with a criminal offence:
 1. the right to be informed promptly, in a language which he/she understands and in detail, of the nature and cause of the accusation against him/her;
 2. the right to have adequate time and facilities for the preparation of his/her defence;
 3. the right to examine or have examined witnesses against him/her and to obtain the attendance and examination of witnesses on his/her behalf under the same conditions as witnesses against him/her;
 4. the right to have the free assistance of an interpreter if he/she cannot understand or speak the language used in court.
