Commission Delegated Regulation under Regulation (EU) 2022/2554 on Digital Operational Resilience for the Financial Sector Published in the EU Official Journal (Update 5)

This circular is an update to Circular titled Regulation \(EU\) 2022/2554 and Amending Directive \(EU\) 2022/2556 on Digital Operational Resilience for the Financial Sector published on the EU Official Journal published by the Authority in January 2023. As detailed by the latter circular, Regulation (EU) 2022/2554 ("the Regulation") is to be supplemented by, inter alia, a series of Technical Standards and Guidelines.

Following an interinstitutional drafting process by the European Supervisory Authorities ("ESAs") in agreement with the European Central Bank ("ECB"), the following was adopted and has now been published in the EU Official Journal:

1. COMMISSION DELEGATED REGULATION (EU) 2025/1190 of 13 February 2025 supplementing Regulation (EU) 2022/2554 of the European Parliament and of the Council with regard to regulatory technical standards specifying the criteria used for identifying financial entities required to perform threat-led penetration testing, the requirements and standards governing the use of internal testers, the requirements in relation to the scope, testing methodology and approach for each phase of the testing, results, closure and remediation stages and the type of supervisory and other relevant cooperation needed for the implementation of TLPT and for the facilitation of mutual recognition (access here).

The remaining Technical Standard is expected to be adopted and published in the EU Official Journal in due course. Authorised Persons may request further information by sending an email to the Supervisory ICT Risk and Cybersecurity function on sirc@mfsa.mt. For any TLPT related queries, Authorised Persons may use the email address tlpt@mfsa.mt.
