2.0 Information concerning the custodian:

- 2.1 the identity concerning the depositary of the Scheme and a description of its duties and of conflicts of interest that may arise;
- 2.2 a description of any safekeeping functions delegated by the depositary, the list of delegates and sub-delegates and any conflicts of interest that may arise from such a delegation;
- 2.3 a statement to the effect that up-to-date information regarding points 2.1 and 2.2 will be made available to investors on request.

3.0 Information concerning the advisory firms or external investment advisers who give advice under contract which is paid for out of the assets of the scheme:

- 3.1 Name or style of the firm or name of the adviser;
- 3.2 Material provisions of the contract with the management company or the investment company which may be relevant to the unit-holders, excluding those relating to remuneration; and
- 3.3 Other significant activities.

4.0 Information concerning the arrangements for making payments to unit holders, repurchasing or redeeming units and the making available of information concerning the scheme

- 4.1 Such information shall be provided to the MFSA. In addition, where units are marketed in a Member State or EEA State other than Malta, such information shall be given in respect of that Member State or EEA State in the prospectus published there.

5.0 Information concerning efficient portfolio management techniques.

- 5.1 The Scheme shall disclose in the prospectus
 - (a) The intention of the Scheme to use the techniques and instruments referred to in SLC 5.18 and SLC 5.19 of Part BII of these Rules. This should include a detailed description of the risks involved in these activities, including counterparty risk and potential conflicts of interest, and the impact they will have on the performance of the Scheme. The use of these techniques and instruments are required to be in line with the best interests of the Scheme.
 - (b) the policy regarding direct and indirect operational costs/fees arising from efficient portfolio management techniques that may be deducted from the revenue delivered to the Scheme. These costs and fees shall not include hidden revenue. The Scheme shall disclose the identity of the entity or entities to which the direct and indirect costs and fees are paid and indicate if these are related parties to the Scheme, Management Company or the depositary.

6.0 Information concerning Scheme entering into over-the-counter financial derivative transactions.

- 6.1 The prospectus of a Scheme using total return swaps or other financial derivative instruments with the same characteristics should include the following:
- (a) information on the underlying strategy and composition of the investment portfolio or index;
 - (b) information on the counterparties of the transactions;
 - (c) a description of the risk of counterparty default and the effect on investor returns;
 - (d) the extent to which a counterparty assumes any discretion over the composition or management of the Scheme's investment portfolio or over the underlying of the financial derivative instruments, and whether the approval of the counterparty is required in relation to any investment portfolio transaction; and
 - (e) subject to the provisions of SLC 10.05 of Appendix VI, identification of the counterparty as an investment manager.

7.0 Other investment information:

- 7.1 Historical performance of the Scheme (where applicable) such information may be either included in or attached to the prospectus; and
- 7.2 Profile of the typical investor for whom the Scheme is designed.

8.0 Economic information

- 8.1 Possible expenses or fees, other than the charges mentioned in paragraph 1.17 of this Annex, distinguishing between those to be paid by the unitholder and those to be paid out of the assets of the scheme.

9.0 Additional information regarding Index-tracking Scheme

9.1 The prospectus of an index-tracking Scheme shall include:

- (a) a clear description of the indices including information on their underlying components. In order to avoid the need to update the document frequently, the prospectus can direct investors to a website where the exact compositions of the indices are published;
- (b) information on how the index will be tracked, for example whether it will follow a full or sample based physical replication model or a synthetic replication, and the implications of the chosen method for investors in terms of their exposure to the underlying index and counterparty risk;
- (c) information on the anticipated level of tracking error in normal market conditions;
- (d) a description of factors that are likely to affect the ability of index-tracking Scheme to track the performances of the indices, such as transaction costs, small illiquid components, dividend reinvestment etc.

10.0 Additional information regarding Index-tracking leveraged Scheme

10.1 The prospectus of an index-tracking leveraged Scheme shall include the following information:

- (a) a description of the leverage policy, how this is achieved, (that is whether the leverage is at the level of the index or arises from the way in which the Scheme obtains exposure to the index), the cost of the leverage, (where relevant) and the risks associated with this policy;
- (b) a description of the impact of any reverse leverage (i.e. short exposure);
- (c) a description of how the performance of the Scheme may differ significantly from the multiple of the index performance over the medium to long term.

11.0 Additional information regarding a Scheme set up as an ETF

11.1 An ETF shall disclose clearly in its prospectus the following information:

- (a) the policy regarding portfolio transparency and where information on the portfolio may be obtained, including where the indicative net asset value, if applicable, is published;
- (b) the manner in which the indicative net asset value is calculated, if applicable, and the frequency of calculation; and
- (c) The process to be followed by investors who purchased their units/shares on the secondary market should the circumstances described in SLC 3.3A of Part BII of these Rules arise, together with the potential costs involved. The costs must not be excessive.

11.2 An actively-managed ETF shall disclose clearly in its prospectus the following information:

- (a) The fact that it is an actively-managed ETF; and
- (b) The manner in which it intends to meet the stated investment policy including, where applicable, its intention to outperform an index.

11.3 Where units of a ETF purchased on a secondary market are generally not redeemable from the fund, the prospectus of the fund should include the following warning:

'UCITS ETF's units/shares purchased on the secondary market cannot be sold directly back to UCITSETF. Investors must buy and sell units / shares on a secondary market with the assistance of an intermediary (e.g. a stockbroker) and may incur fees for doing so. In addition, investors may pay more than the current net asset value when buying units / shares and may receive less than the current net asset value when selling them.'

12.0 Additional information regarding Schemes making use of collateral

- 12.1 The prospectus shall also clearly inform investors of the collateral policy of the Scheme. This shall include permitted types of collateral, level of collateral required and haircut policy and, in the case of cash collateral, reinvestment policy (including the risks arising from the re-investment policy).

13.0 Additional information regarding Schemes investing in financial indices

- 13.1 When a Scheme intends to make use of the increased diversification limits referred to in SLC 5.37 of Part BII of the Rules, this shall be disclosed clearly in the prospectus together with a description of the exceptional market conditions which justify this investment.
- 13.2 The prospectus shall also disclose the rebalancing frequency and its effects on the costs within the strategy.

14.0 Additional information regarding investment companies with variable share capital allowing post-trade settlement.

- 14.1 Where an investment company with variable share capital has issued shares subject to full payment by a settlement date, in accordance with regulation 16 of the Companies Act (Investment Companies with Variable Share Capital) Regulations, it shall indicate in its prospectus, the settlement date by which payment of the full subscription price is to be received, which date cannot be later than five working days from the date of issue of those shares.

Annex III Contents of the Prospectus - Closed-Ended Maltese Non UCITS Schemes

1.0 General Requirements

- 1.1 Where the information being requested is inappropriate to the nature of the Scheme or its legal form, the Prospectus shall contain, where possible, information equivalent to the required information.
- 1.2 The Scheme may draw up the Prospectus as a single document or separate documents. A Prospectus composed of separate documents must divide the required information into a Registration Document, a Securities Note and a Summary Note. The Registration Document must contain the information relating to the Scheme. The Securities Note must contain the information concerning the units offered to the public.
- 1.3 The Prospectus shall be valid for 12 months after its publication for offers to the public, provided that the Prospectus is completed, if applicable, by any Supplements referred to under SLC 5.7 of Part B I of these Rules.
- 1.4 The Registration Document shall be valid for a period of up to 12 months. In the case of a listed Scheme, the Prospectus must be updated with any information that the Scheme was required to disclose (in terms of the rules of the relevant rules of the regulated market) to the public over the preceding 12 months.
- 1.5 The Registration Document accompanied by the Securities Note, updated if applicable in accordance with para. 1.5 below, and the Summary Note, shall be considered as constituting a valid Prospectus.
- 1.6 Where the Scheme has a Registration Document approved by the MFSA, it shall only draw up the Securities Note and the Summary Note when units are offered to the public or admitted to trading on a regulated market. In this case, the Securities Note shall provide information that would normally be provided in the Registration Document if there has been a material change or recent development which could affect investors' assessments since the latest updated Registration Document or any supplement referred to in SLC 5.7 of Part B I of these Rules. The Securities and Summary Notes shall be subject to a separate approval. Where the Scheme has only filed a Registration Document without approval, the entire documentation, including updated information, shall be subject to approval.

- 1.7 The Prospectus of the Scheme shall include a summary. The summary must, in a brief manner and in non-technical language, convey the essential characteristics and risks associated with investing in the Scheme. It must also convey the essential characteristics and risks associated with any guarantor and the Scheme. The summary shall also contain a warning that:
- i. it should be read as an introduction to the Prospectus;
 - ii. any decision to invest in the units of the Scheme should be based on consideration of the Prospectus as a whole by the investor;
 - iii. where a claim relating to the information contained in the Prospectus is brought before a court, the plaintiff investor might have to bear the costs of translating the Prospectus before the legal proceedings are initiated; and
 - iv. civil liability attaches to those persons who have tabled the summary including any translation thereof, and applied for its notification, but only if the summary is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent when read together with the other parts of the Prospectus.
- 1.8 Information may be incorporated in the Prospectus by reference to one or more previously or simultaneously published documents that have been approved by the MFSA. When information is incorporated by reference, a cross reference list must be provided in order to enable investors to easily identify specific items of information. The summary shall not incorporate information by reference.
- 1.9 In the case of a Prospectus comprising several documents and/or incorporating information by reference, the documents and information making up the Prospectus may be published and circulated separately provided that the said documents are made available, free of charge, to the public. Each document shall indicate where the other constituent documents of the Prospectus may be obtained.
- 1.10 Where the Scheme makes an offer to the public in Malta, the Prospectus shall be drawn up in English or Maltese.
- 1.11 Where an offer to the public is made or admission to trading on a regulated market is sought in one or more EU Member or EEA States (excluding Malta), the Prospectus of the Scheme shall be drawn up either in a language accepted by the competent authorities of those States or in a language customary in the sphere of international finance, at the choice of the Scheme.

- 1.12 Where an offer to the public is made or admission to trading on a regulated market is sought in more than one Member State (including Malta), the Prospectus shall be drawn up in English or Maltese and shall also be made available either in a language accepted by the competent authorities of each host Member State or in a language customary in the sphere of international finance, at the choice of the Scheme.
- 1.13 The Prospectus must be drawn in compliance with the requirements outlined below together with the requirements listed in the Commission Regulation (EC) No 809/ 2004 of 29th April, 2004 implementing Directive 2003/71/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council on the Prospectus to be published when securities are offered to the public or admitted to trading.

2.0 Contents of the Prospectus

2.1 The Prospectus of the Scheme may be drawn up as:

- i. a combination of the following documents:
 - a. a Share Registration Document;
 - b. a Securities Note; and
 - c. a Summary Note; or
- ii. a Single Document.

2.2 The Prospectus must clearly indicate both the offer price as well as the number of units to be issued. It must also include a declaration by the Directors of the Scheme, or its administrative management body (whose names and functions or in the case of legal persons, their names and registered offices appear on the Prospectus), to the effect that to the best of their knowledge, the information contained therein is in accordance with facts and the Prospectus makes no omission likely to affect its import.

2.3 The MFSA may exempt a Scheme, on a case by case basis, from disclosing certain information required to be disclosed in terms of Directive 2003/71/EC or Commission Regulation (EC) No 809/ 2004 of 29th April, 2004, which is not considered relevant for the purposes of the Scheme. In arriving at its decision to exempt the Scheme from disclosing any information included in Directive

2003/71/EC or the Regulation, the MFSA shall consider whether:

- i. disclosure of such information would be contrary to the public interest;
- or
- ii. disclosure of such information would be seriously detrimental to the Scheme, provided that the omission would not be likely to mislead the public with regard to facts and circumstances essential for an informed assessment of the Scheme and of the rights attached to the units of the Scheme to which the Prospectus relates; or
- iii. such information is of minor importance only for a specific offer and is not such as will influence the assessment of the financial position and prospects of the Scheme.

3.0 Prospectus as a combination of documents

3.1 When the Prospectus is drawn up in separate documents:

- i. the contents of the Share Registration Document shall be drawn in accordance with the provisions of Part II of Part A of the Second Schedule of the Companies Act, 1995
- ii. the contents of the Securities Note shall be drawn in accordance with the provisions of Part III of Part A of the Second Schedule of the Companies Act, 1995; and
- iii. the contents of the Summary Note shall be drawn in accordance with the provisions of Part IV of Part A of the Second Schedule of the Companies Act, 1995.

4.0 Prospectus as a single documents

4.1 When the Prospectus is drawn up as a single document, it shall be drawn in compliance with the provisions of Part I of Part A of the Second Schedule of the Companies Act, 1995.
